CABRINIAN '67

THE CHAPEL

Our chapel is the center of many campus activities, originating with the Senior Ring and Sweater Ceremony in September, and culminating with the Graduation Baccalaureate Mass in June. The large wooden doors swing open wide revealing the glorious interior of our chapel. Depicted in stained glass windows is the life of our beloved foundress, Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini. The cross, which adorns the steeple, grandly reaches out into the beautiful California sky, giving inspiration to the many who behold its majestic splendor. The silhouette of this towering edifice can be seen from nearly any point of our lovely school grounds.

Wonderful composite — Villa Cabrini Academy High — amalgam of nationalities, religions and personalities. You are a part of this Academy, a part of the activities, the spirit and the responsibilities. You have learned to achieve perfection, accept honors and defeat and to appreciate the value of practical knowledge. You are advancing, progressing, knowing the wisdom of fellowship and common endeavor. Yet there is a separateness in our togetherness, for you must go your own way, reaching the goals you have set before you and growing closer to God and His plan for salvation. As you leave the portals of Cabrini as the ideal Christian woman, remain faithful to your Alma Mater.

*Striving onward
Into a bittersweet world
Young with sorrow,
And old with joy;
Dampened by tears
And warmed by love,
We assume a place
Of challenge and change
And present with joy
A step forward to
"PROGRESS"*

DEDICATION

This world of ours is not a constant but a variable. It grows in multitudinous ways. The problems it encompasses are tremendous. The happiness it contains is ever-increasing. The hatred and love within its realm seem to reach infinitely far. It is filled with great sorrow and great joy and we wonder why — but we know in our hearts that as sorrow carves out the weather-worn face of this earth, so does joy fill all the empty corners and spacious moments. With these thoughts embedded in our minds and hearts we pledge our yearbook to an ever-expanding sphere of existence, to an evolving and improving earth where problems come and go and peace and happiness intercede. With pride and joy we dedicate the Cabrinian of 1967 to "a changing world".

FOREWORD

To the average individual, Villa Cabrini stands as but an educational institution, but to its students it means much more. Freshman year brought the novelty of high school life, while Sophomore year settled us into the routine that a high school career demanded. As Juniors, we advanced spiritually, scholastically, and physically, thus preparing ourselves for the final year at Cabrini. Our Senior year, the last year, brought with it the crowning of our achievements and the fulfillment of all preparation, enabling us to make that first step into the future sure and strong. To mature, to accept, to "progress" — this is what Cabrini means to us.

Softly the light of celestial splendor
Falls upon the Lord's Chosen One
Too small this world for thy zeal to conquer
Light in our hearts that fire of boundless love.
Saint Frances Cabrini, in glory ever be,
With God in heaven, who strengthened thee
Thy faith in God could move the highest mountain
Teach us to trust in Him who never fails.

PROGRESS
through
LEARNING

From Freshman year the students realize the necessity of spirituality as emphasized by Sister Consilia.

Happiness is Father Fitzpatrick and his Senior religion class.

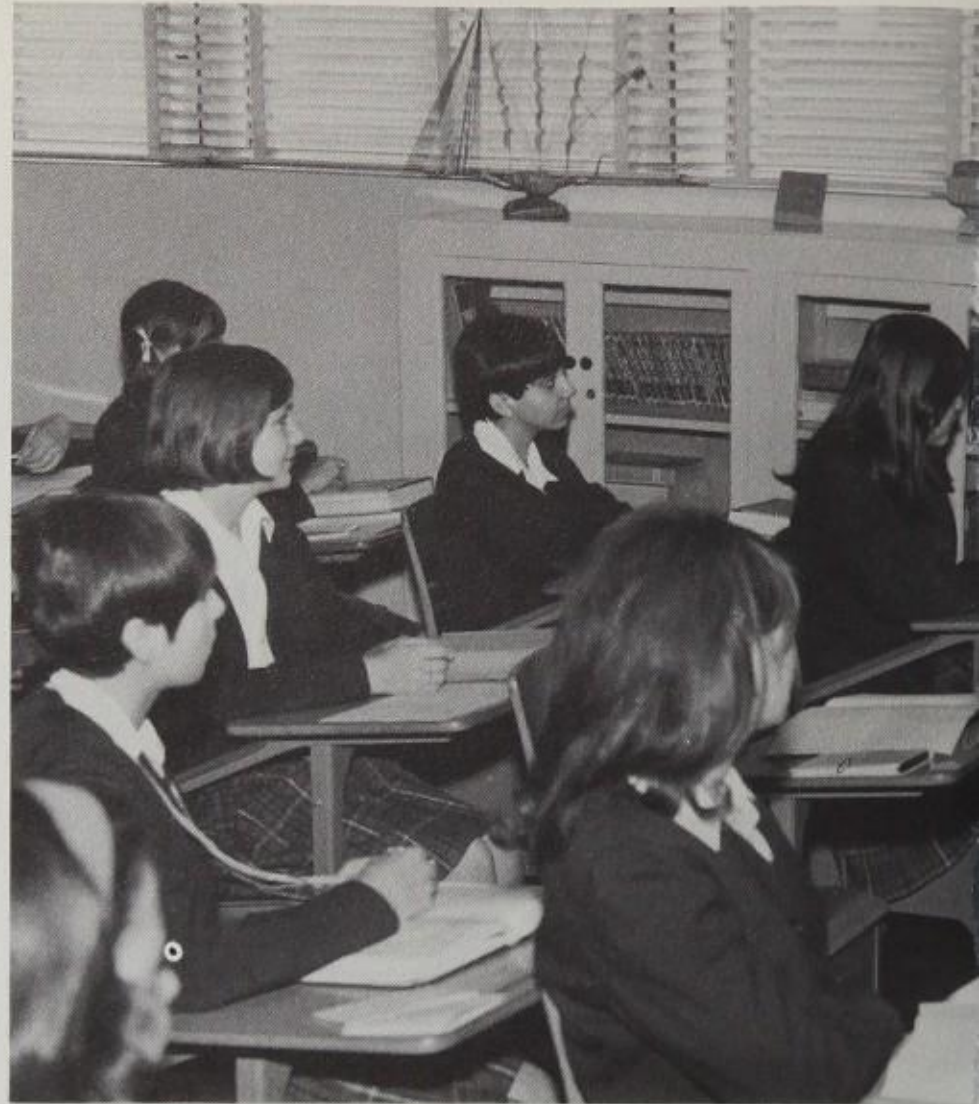

Sophomores consider the seriousness of their religious education.

Student participation in religious discussions is encouraged by Sister Mary Ann.

ENGLISH

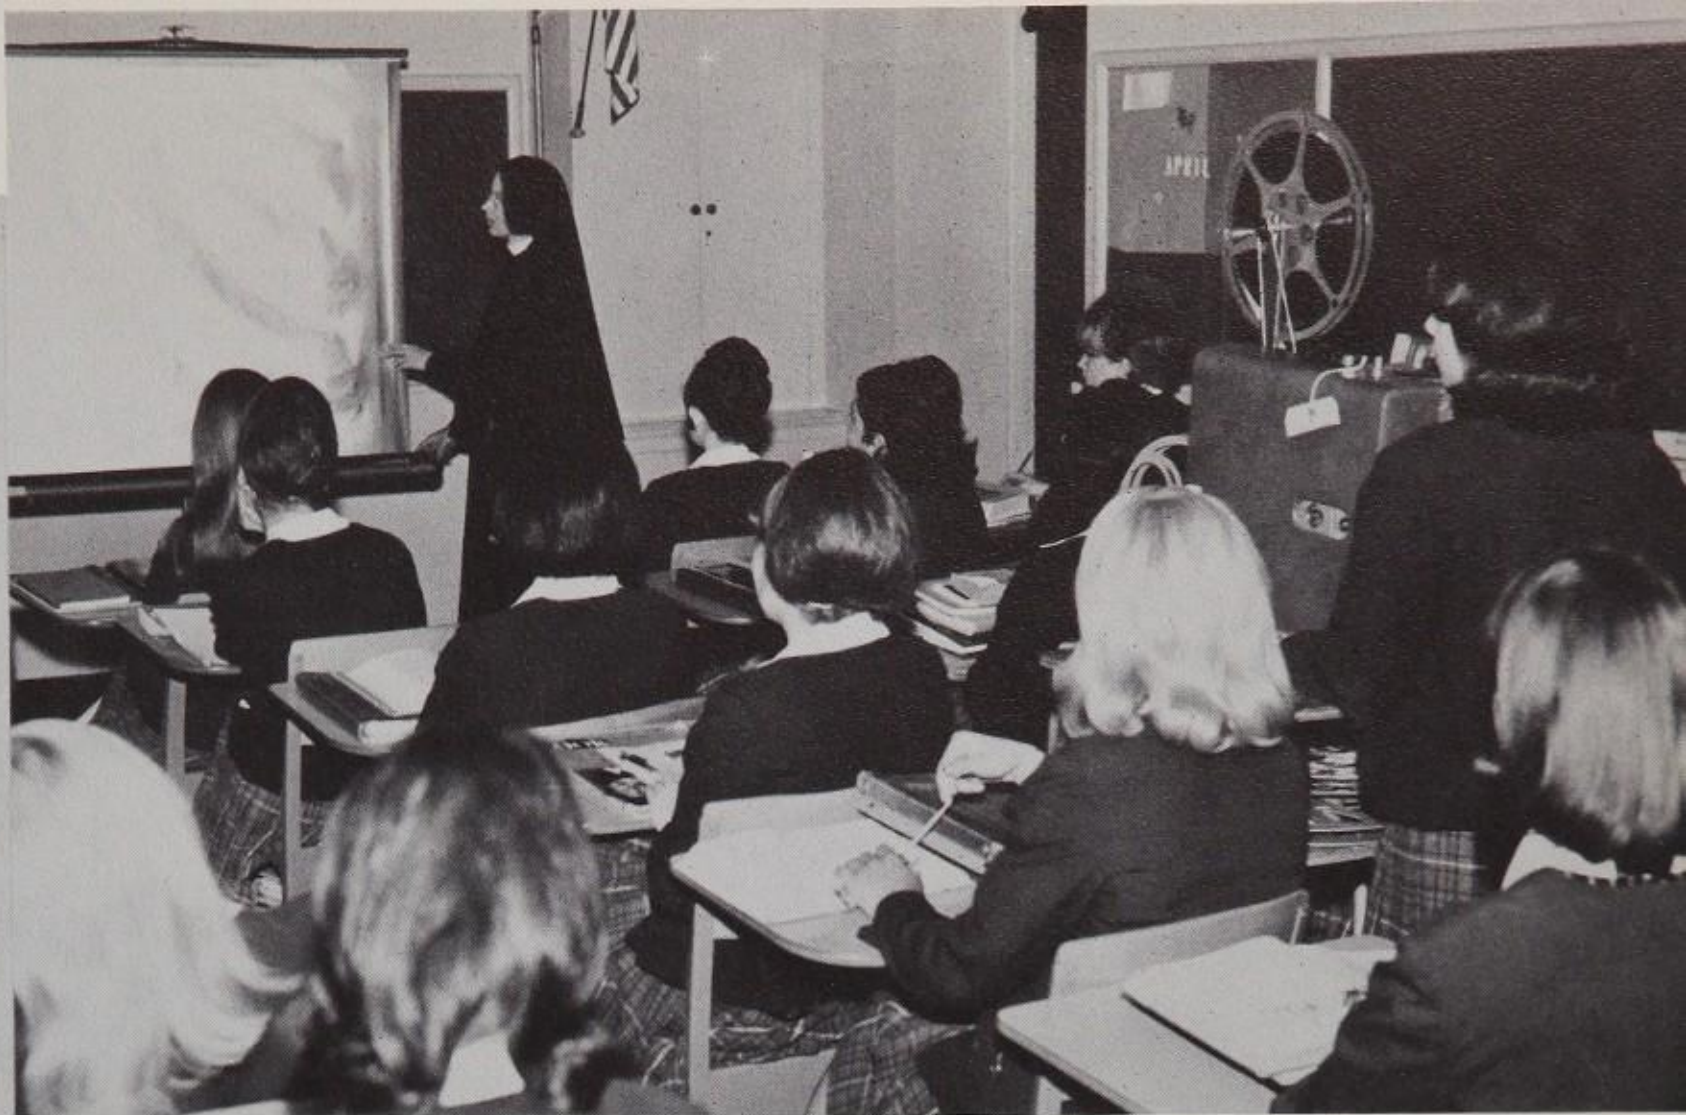

Cathy Mowbray presents an original selection on English literature for the Freshman English class.

Mrs. Weld gladly helps Michol find a book in the library

Students take advantage of the library facilities with the assistance of our librarian, Mrs. Weld and Kay Coughlin, her able assistant.

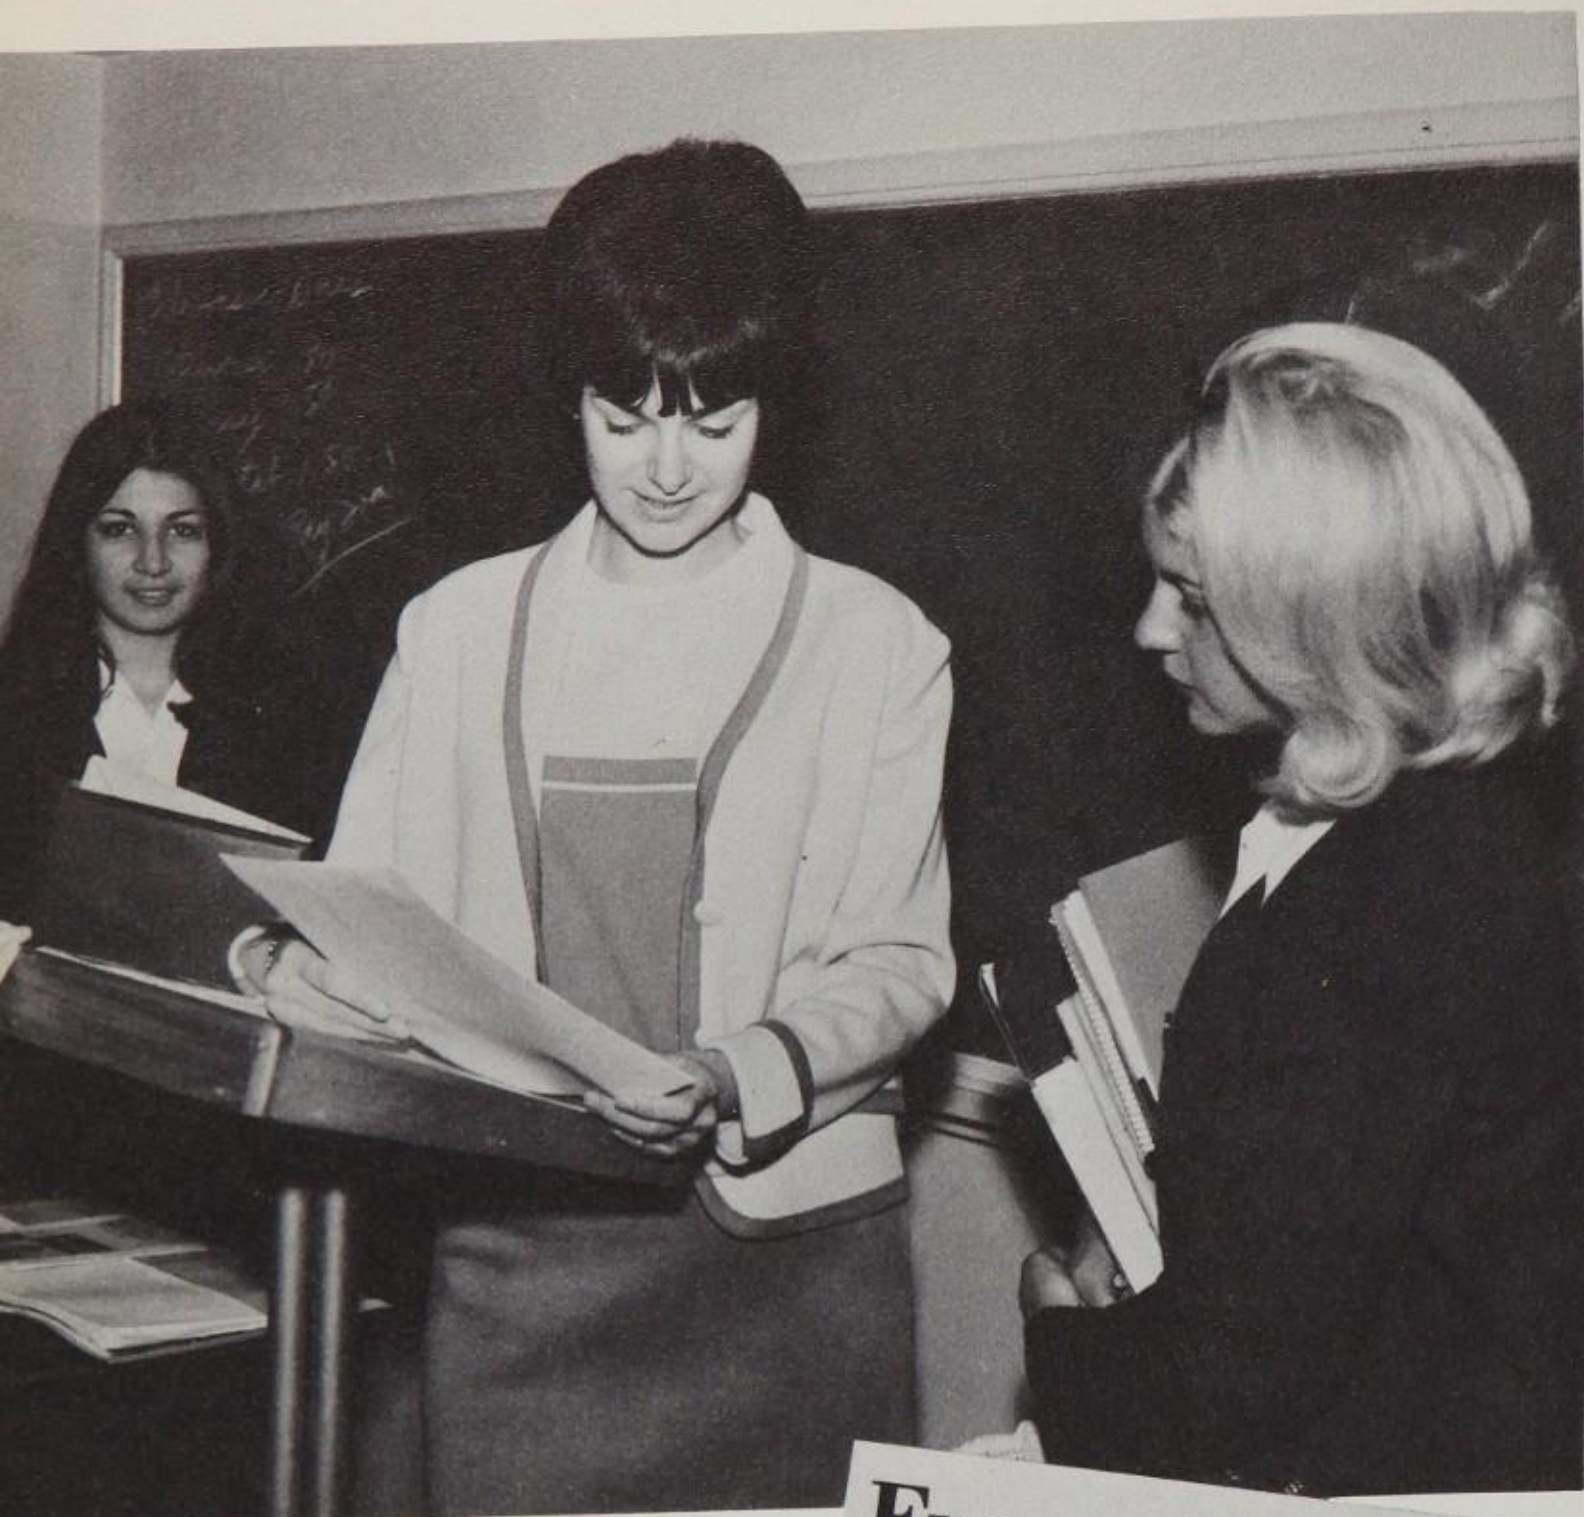

Sister Mary Ann and her Junior English class relax with a classical film strip.

"Fair is foul and foul is fair", exclaim the charming witches of Macbeth in Senior English.

They Are Human

While Mrs. Liautaud shows Melinda Mazur the results of the test, Jennie anxiously awaits her turn.

Social Sciences

If not crucial, Linda finds this democracy problem entertaining

From the Old to the New

The Ancient Mariner re-visits the Freshman ancient history class.

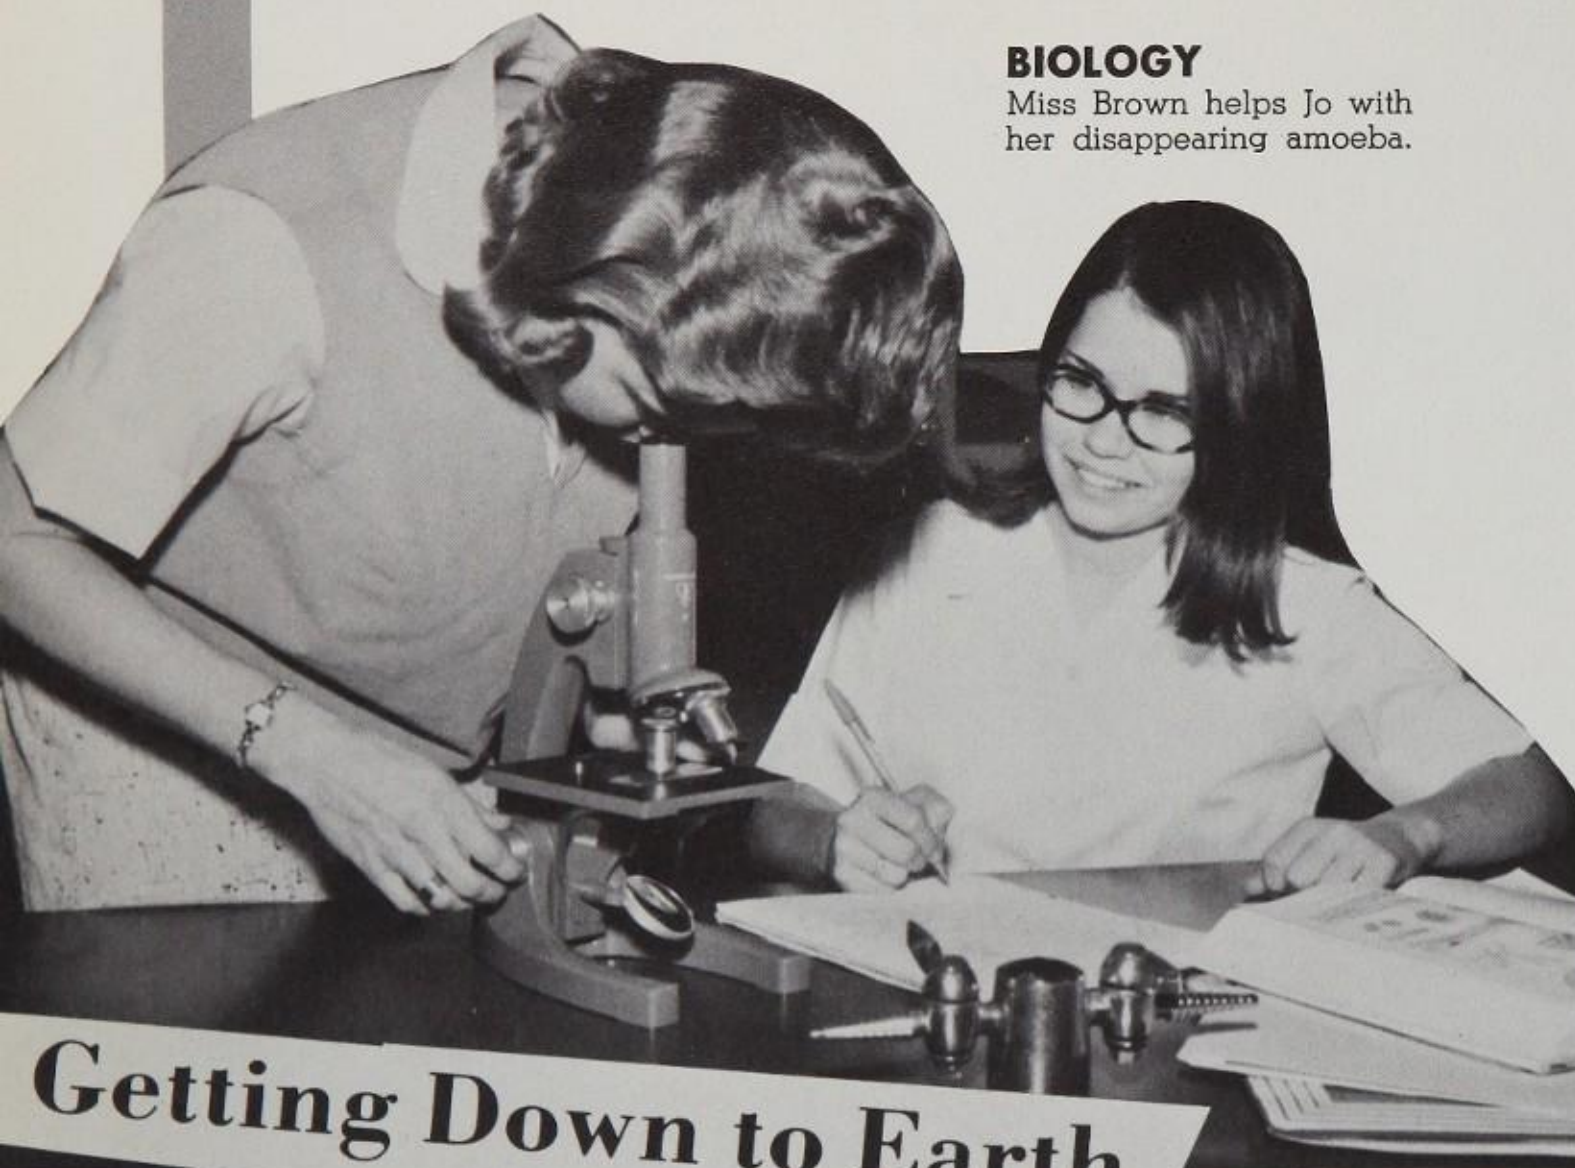

What's so funny, Sophomores? It's only Modern History.

The Natural Sciences

BIOLOGY

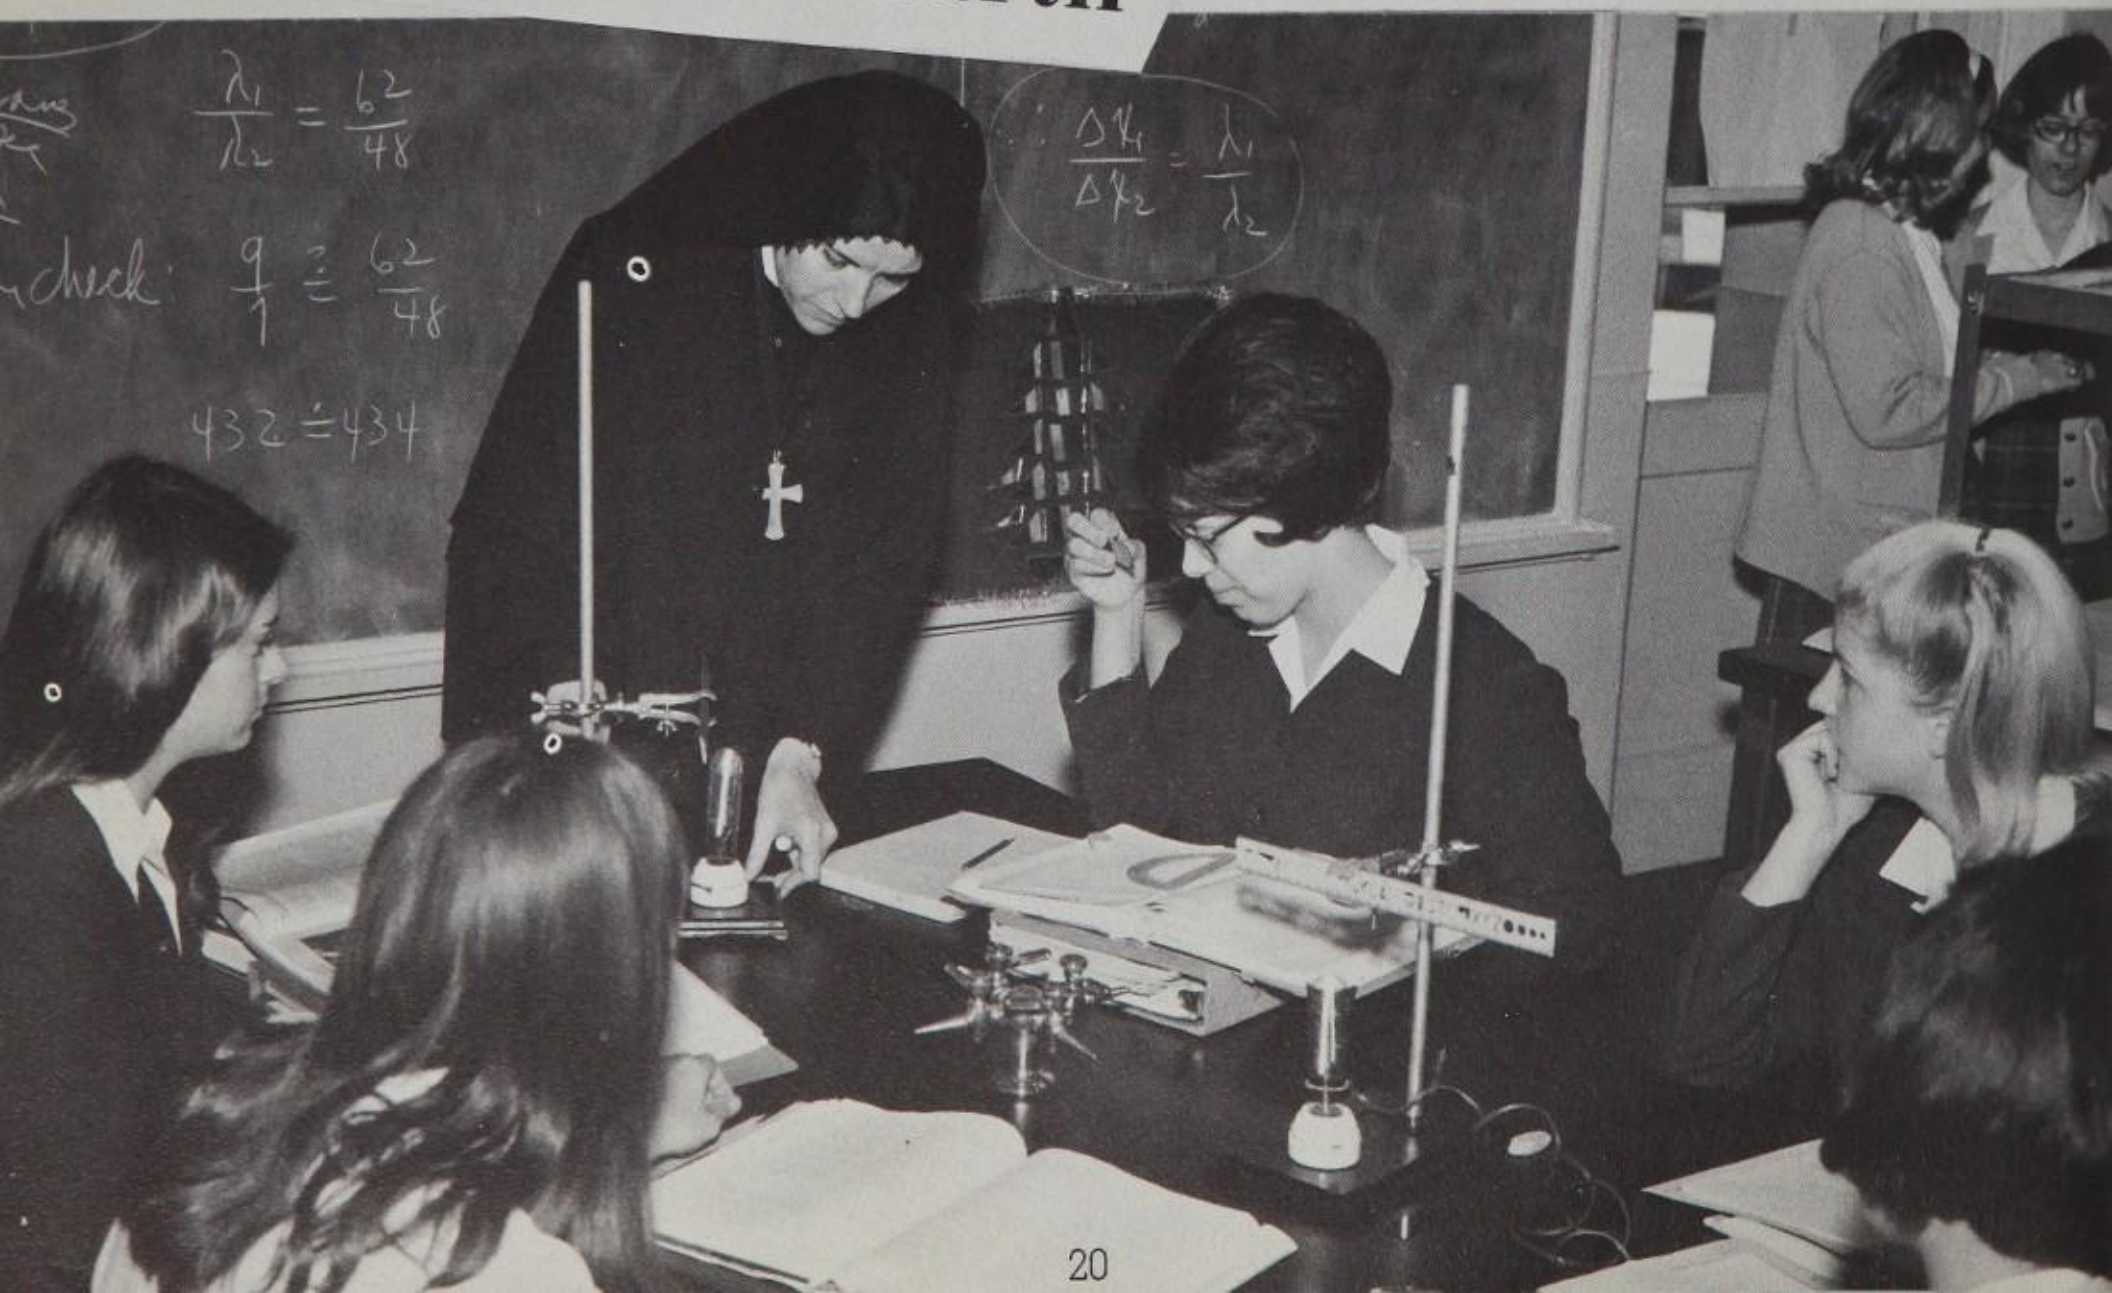

Miss Brown helps Jo with her disappearing amoeba.

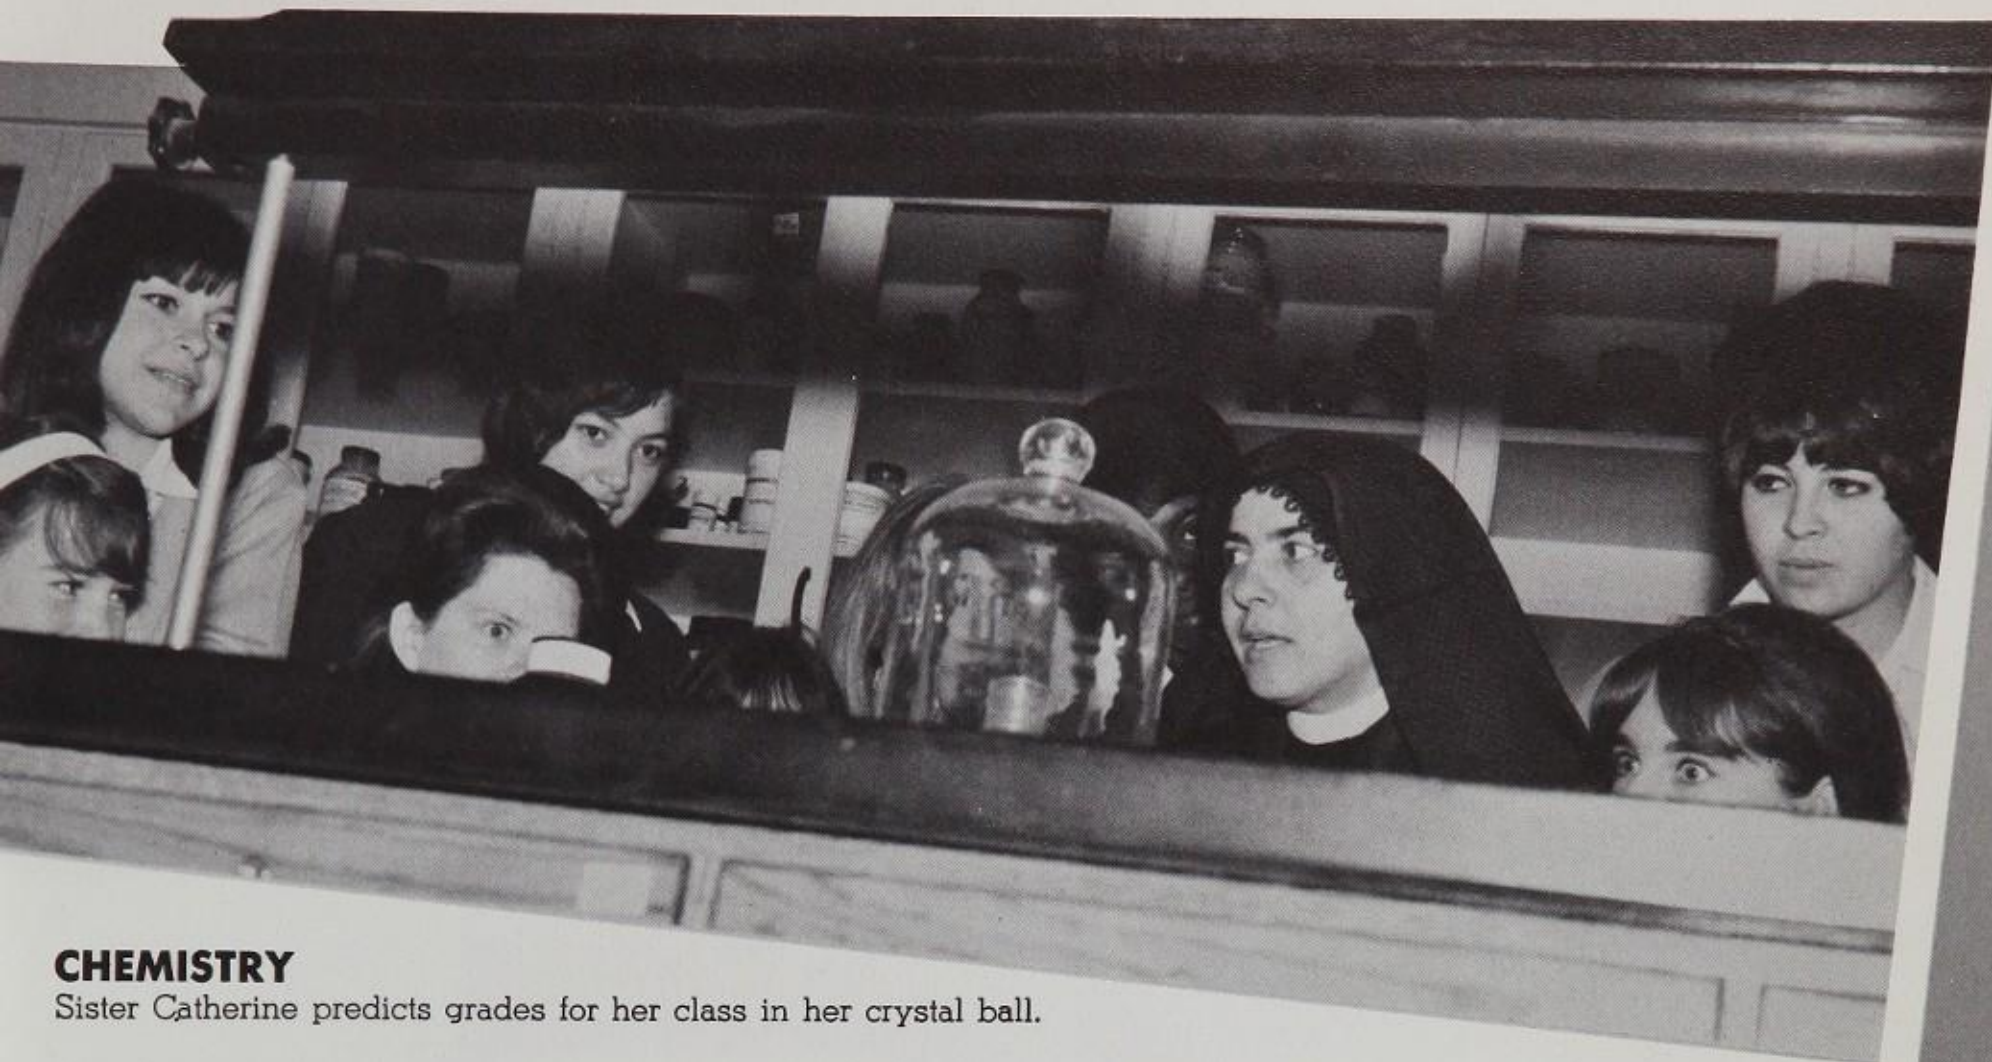

PHYSICS

Students really do see the light with Sister Michael.

Getting Down to Earth

CHEMISTRY

Sister Catherine predicts grades for her class in her crystal ball.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

MATHEMATICS

GEOMETRY

"Just what do you mean, 'What is it for?'" retaliates Sister Michael to her bewildered class.

ALGEBRA I Freshmen algebra students look to their teacher seeking approval.

ALGEBRA II Sally, you don't look too happy; algebra can't be that bad.

MATH IV

"Who's kidding who?"
ask Math IV students with slide rule in hand,
"What do we do with it
now?"

They Never Gave Up

ITALIAN II

"Let's go to La Strada Restaurant," says Sister Stanislaus while Italian students think about excess calories.

MODERN LANGUAGES

Mr. Ricci enjoys listening to the amusing conversation of charming Italian II "signorine".

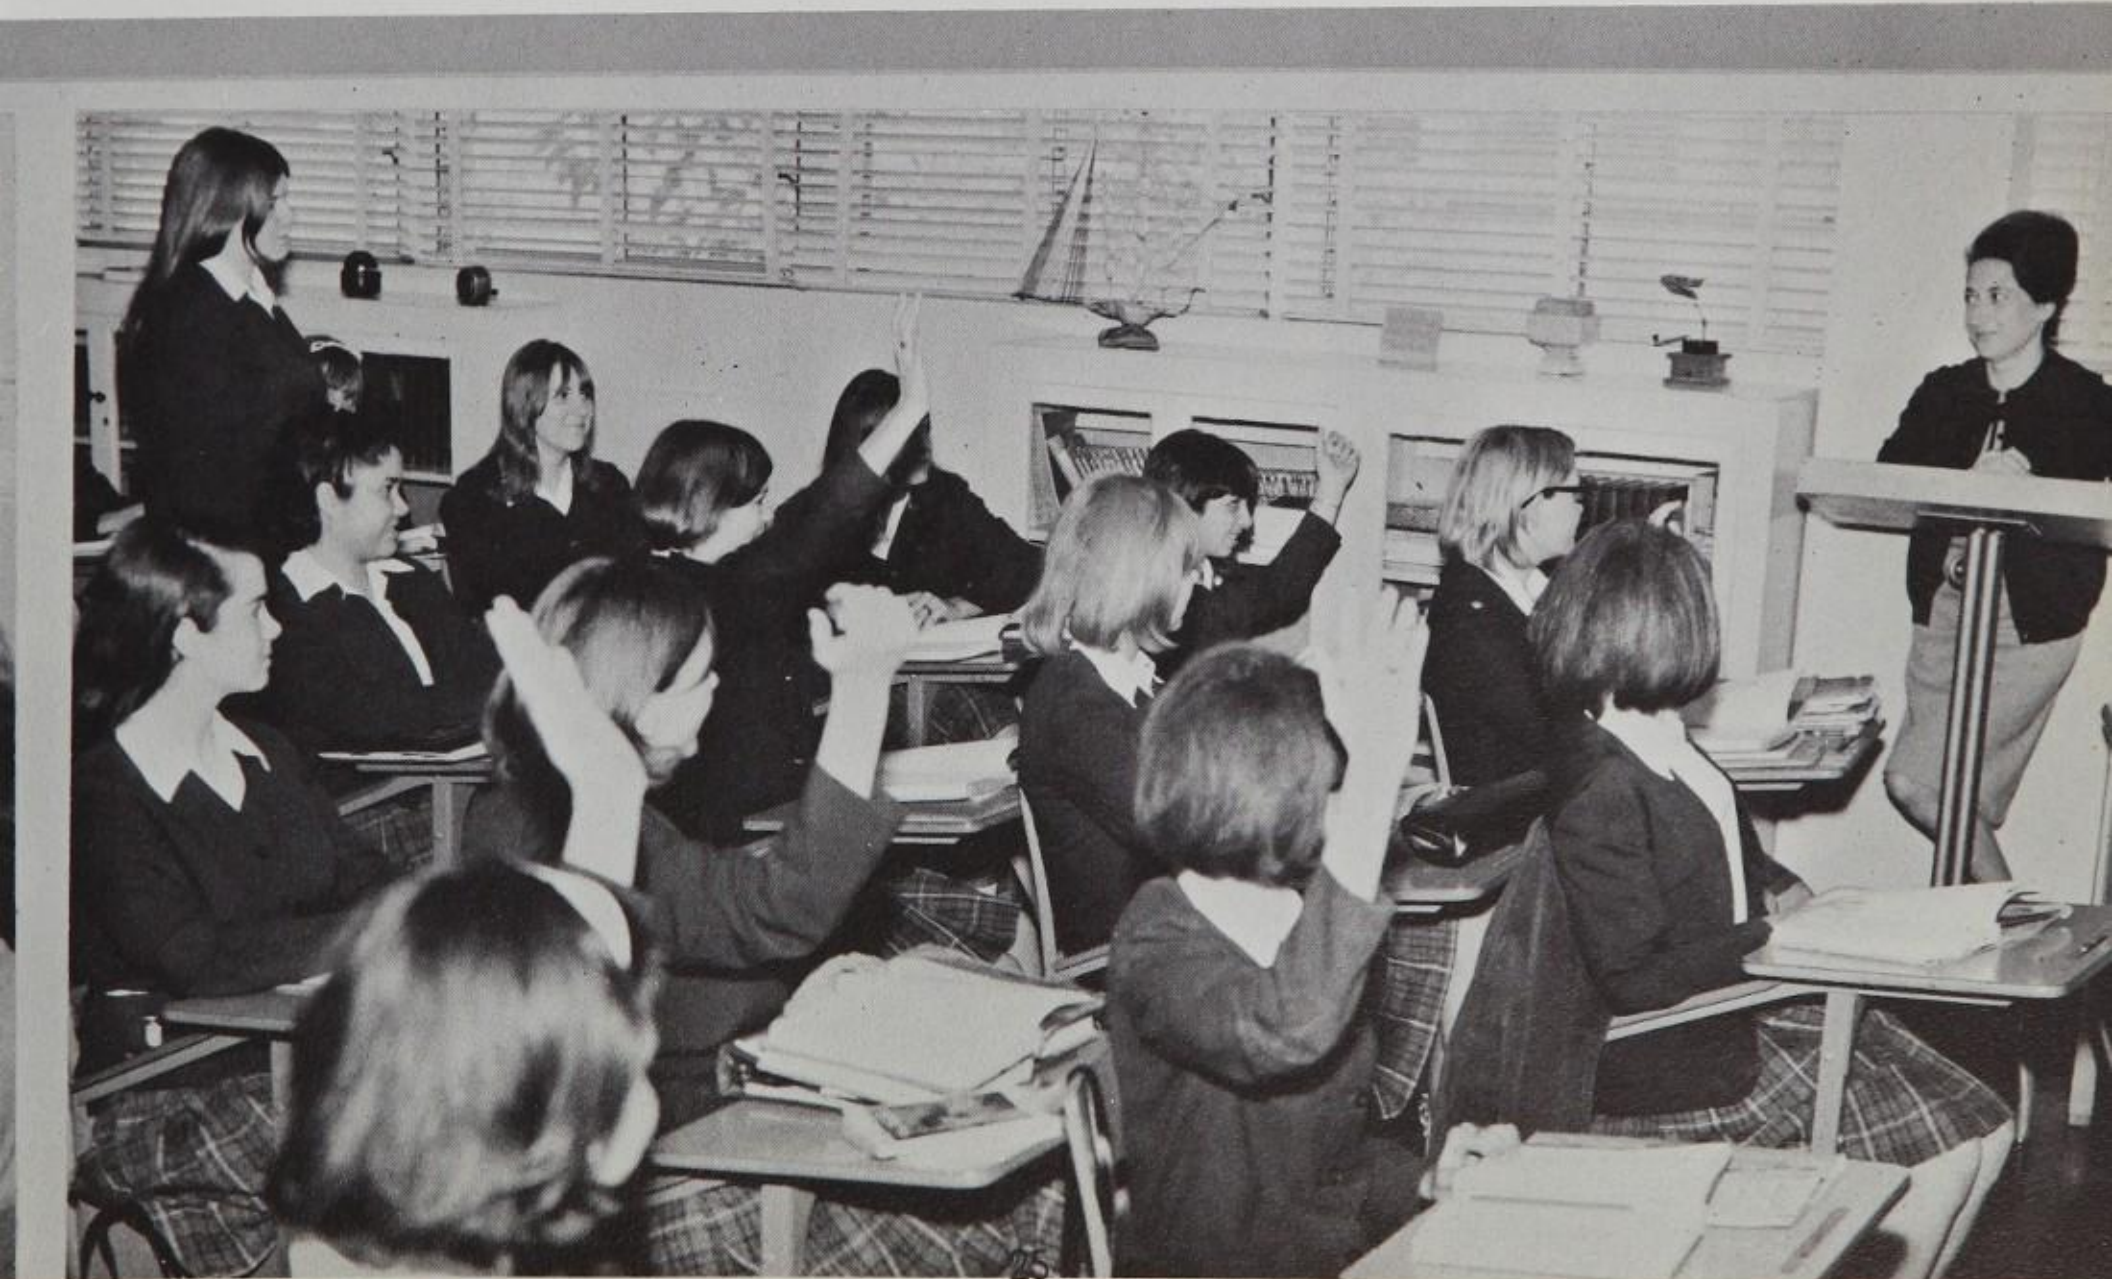

LATIN II

Sophomores, beware the Ides of March!!!

FRENCH I

Once in a while the students of French enjoy a lively discussion with Mrs. Nikbahkt.

SPANISH III

Singing Spanish carols puts this happy group in the spirit of Christmas.

SPANISH I

SPANISH II

The language lab provides valuable learning experience for these very dedicated students.

GERMAN I

Interested students listen attentively while Mrs. Kurka recounts her experiences in Germany.

SPANISH IV

"Just a little bit higher, Mary," instructs Dr. Gutierrez as Spanish IV students help decorate the classroom.

Foreign Languages

GERMAN II

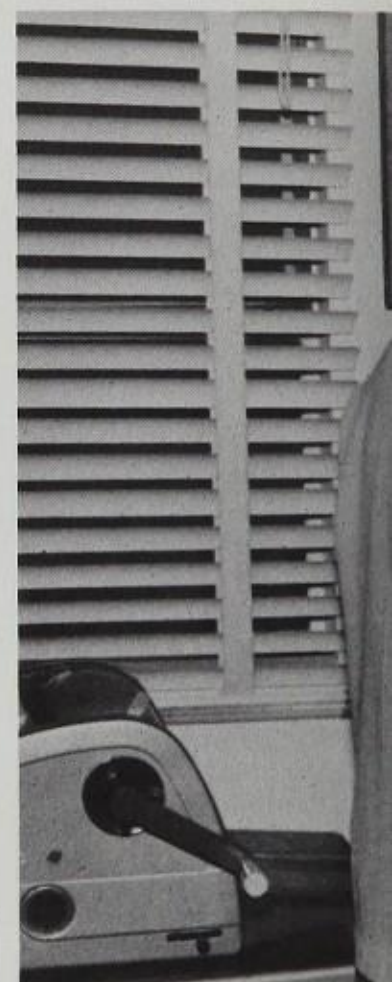

"Guten morgen", Mrs. Kurka, "and thank you for letting us take a picture of your hard working class."

SHORTHAND

Miss Caranci lends a helping "shorthand" to her students.

TYPING I Typing I students "click along with Miss Caranci."

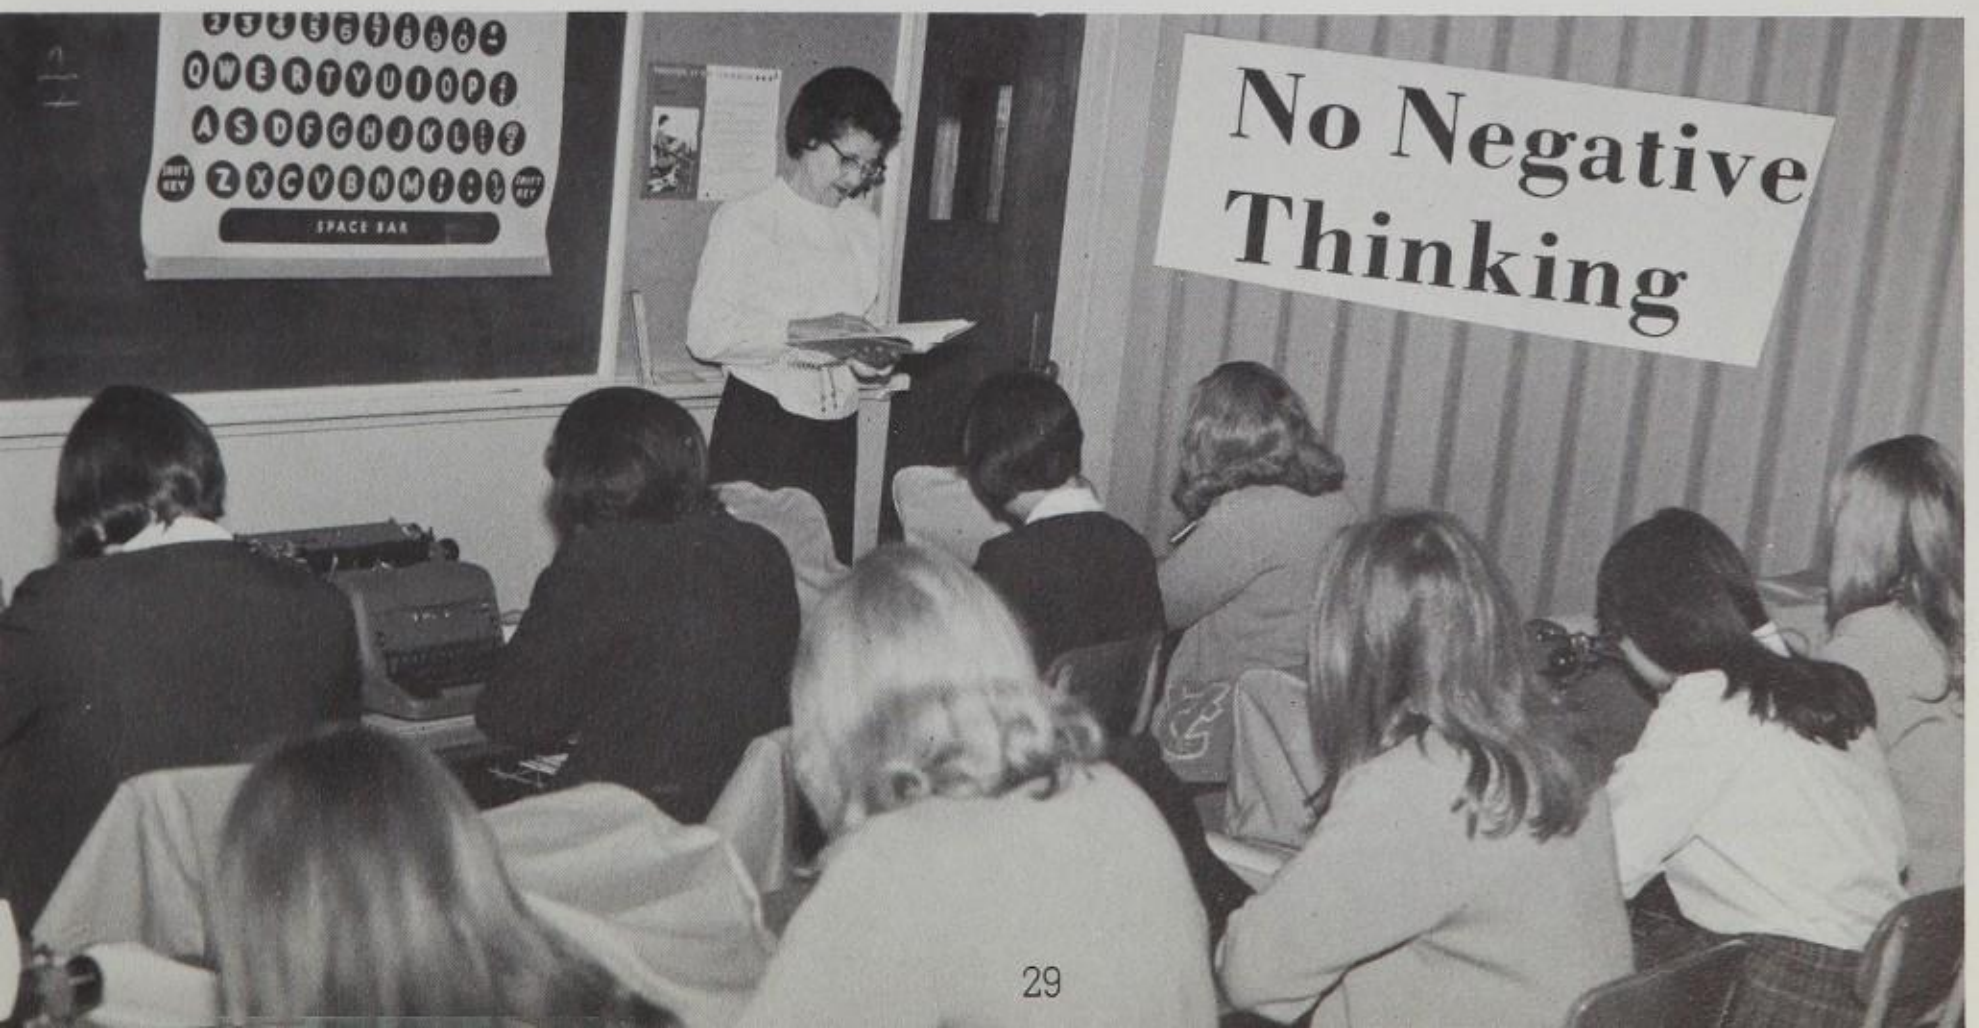

BUSINESS

ACCOUNTING

Roberta Dresser learns the finer points of accounting under the direction of Miss Caranci, and Mrs. Mazur instructs Jackie in the use of office machinery.

BOOKKEEPING Concentration is the keyword.

Hard work, and lots of fun, make for the well-rounded student at Cabrini.

ART

"Be careful, Nancy; too many cooks spoil the soup, especially when the chef's name is Sister Stanislaus."

Art show-offs? Well you could call them that.

Working with resin is a sticky job, but these four don't mind.

They Like To Show and Tell

"Sing along with Mrs. Cromie," is the thought of the moment at choir practice.

MUSIC

Lawrence Welk, watch out! The music appreciation class students accompanied by Sister Consilia not only make their own instruments but attempt to play them too.

"Remember, it's one, two, cha cha cha," says Miss Adair during the weekly social graces class.

Practice Makes Perfect!

Poise, grace, and happy moments add to the pleasure of Miss Russo's ballet class.

BALLET

Toes pointed and chin high, are Miss Russo's instructions for pretty ballerina, Goli.

PIANO

Piano instructor, Mrs. Verna Burke, smiles proudly as she listens to promising student, Sandy Twiss

SPEECH

"Peace is attainable."

"It depends on yo

"Let's put it this way . . ."

"I make mistakes, but . . ."

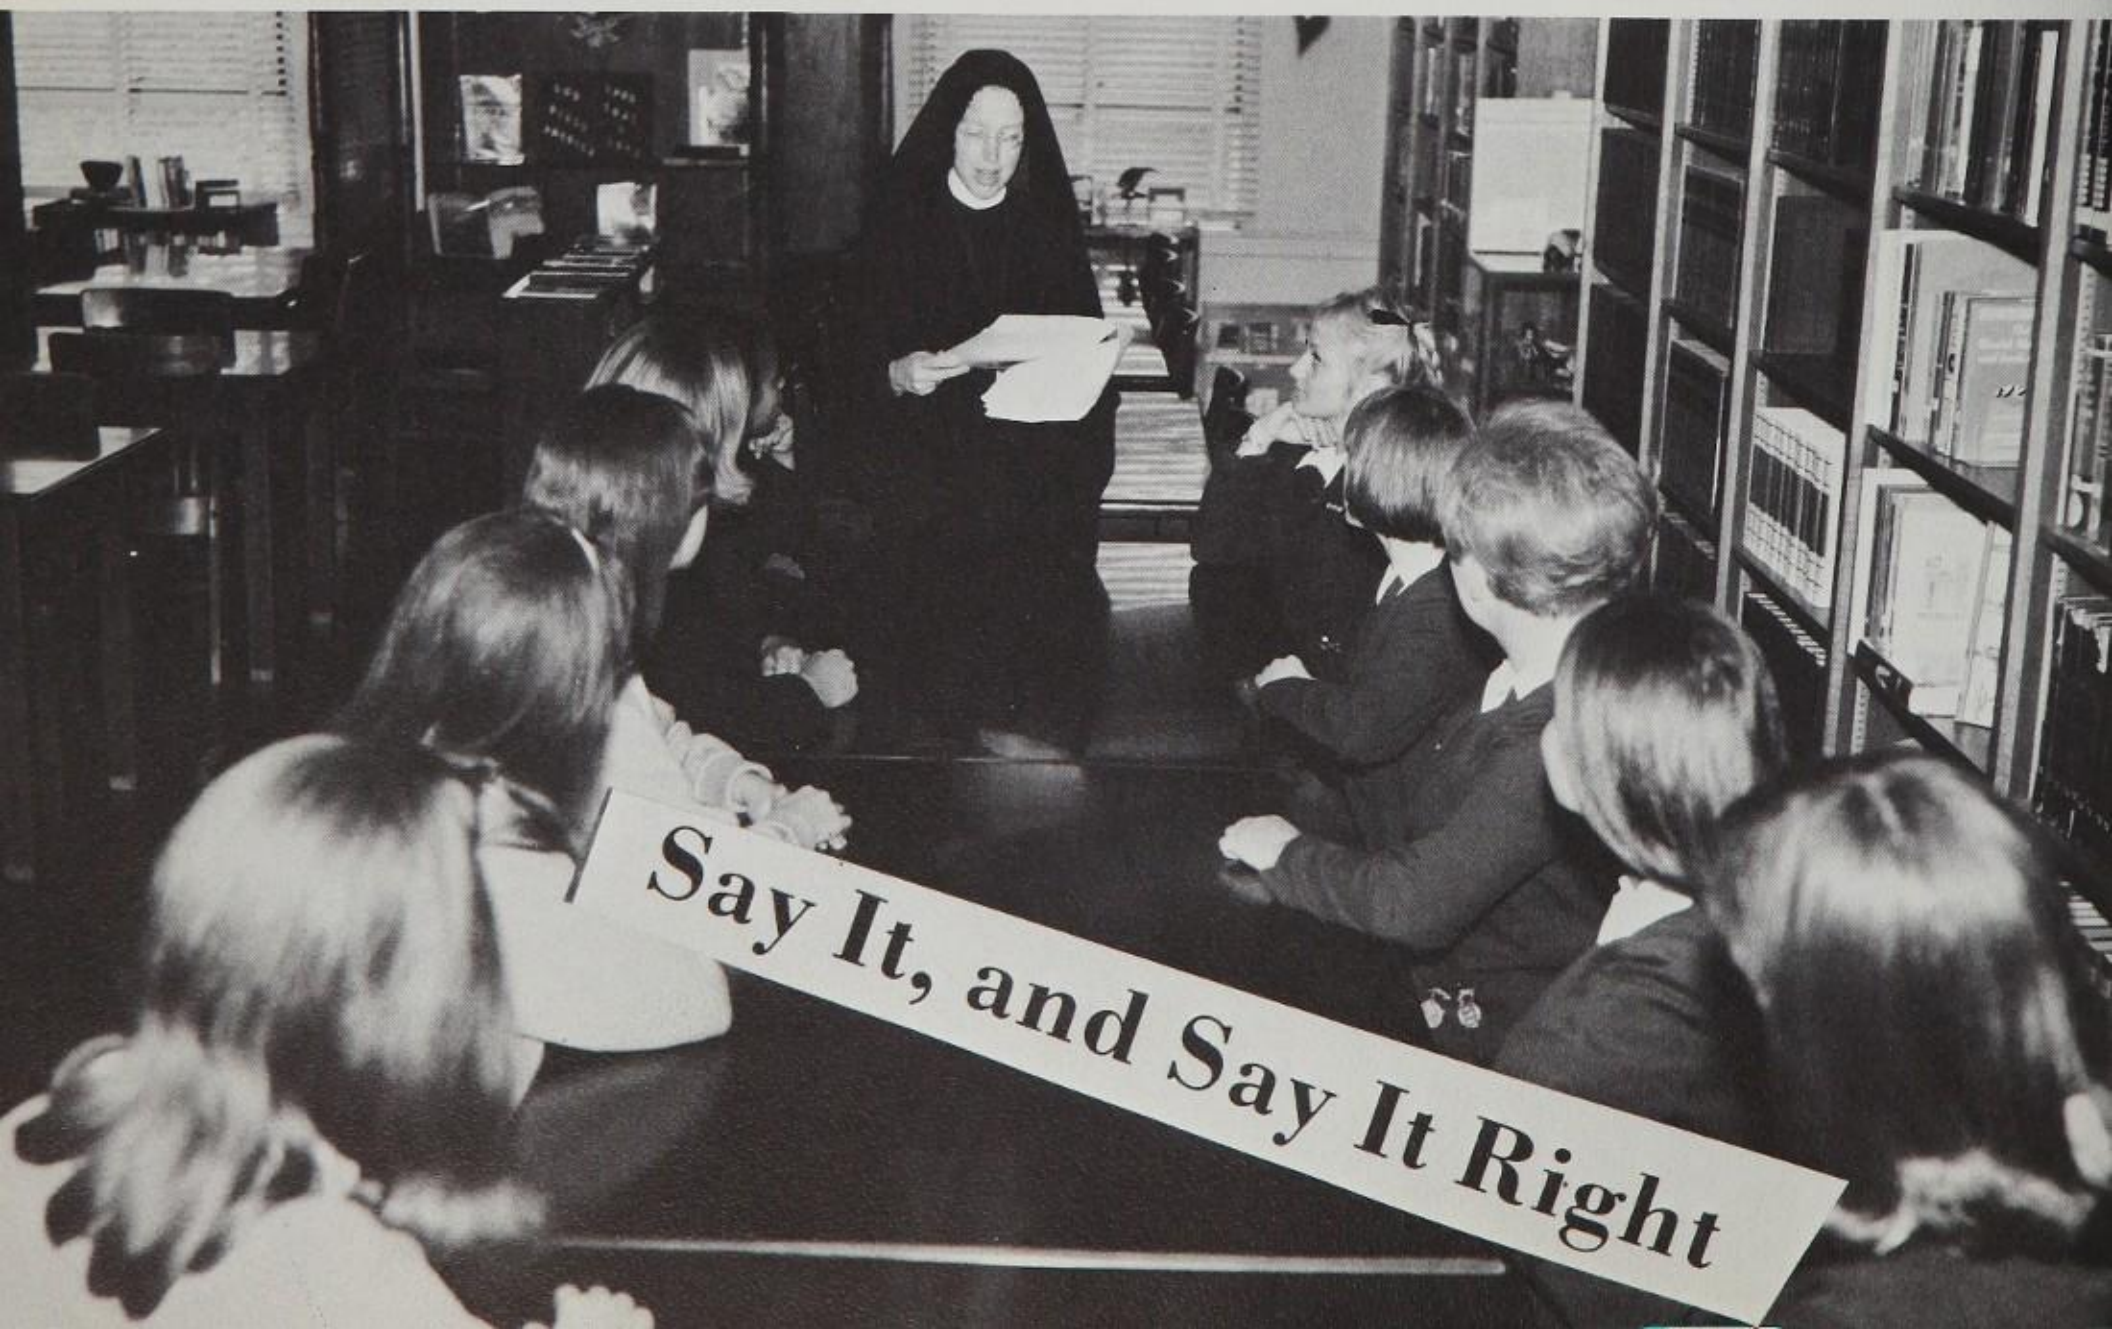

"Let it be said that . . ."

Sister Mary Ann instructs her speech class on the advantages of library research work.

"Right? Right!"

Say It, and Say It Right

Called to Action

Theater Arts

Stage technicians, Jacquee and Kay, catch their cue backstage from Sister Mary Ann during one of their famous productions.

Would Carole rather fight than switch?

"Watch out for the other guy," says Mrs. De Simeo, "even if he only drives a two inch car."

DRIVER EDUCATION

Discussion groups plan their own rules for defensive driving.

Ressucitation Linda??
First aid class will go to any length to please the photographer.

FIRST AID

"We could do it in Freshman year, Miss Brown," say the Seniors at gym class.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SEWING

Susie, Rita, and Jane display their lovely sewing class creations.

COOKING

Dr. Gutierrez gives Loretta and Pat the watchful eye in home economics.

"I'll cook it, but I won't eat it!" says Susie with determination.

PROGRESS
through activity

An atmosphere of mixed emotions surrounds the Seniors on Ring and Sweater night.

Ring and Sweater Ceremony

The Juniors proudly hold the sweaters to be presented to their Senior Sisters.

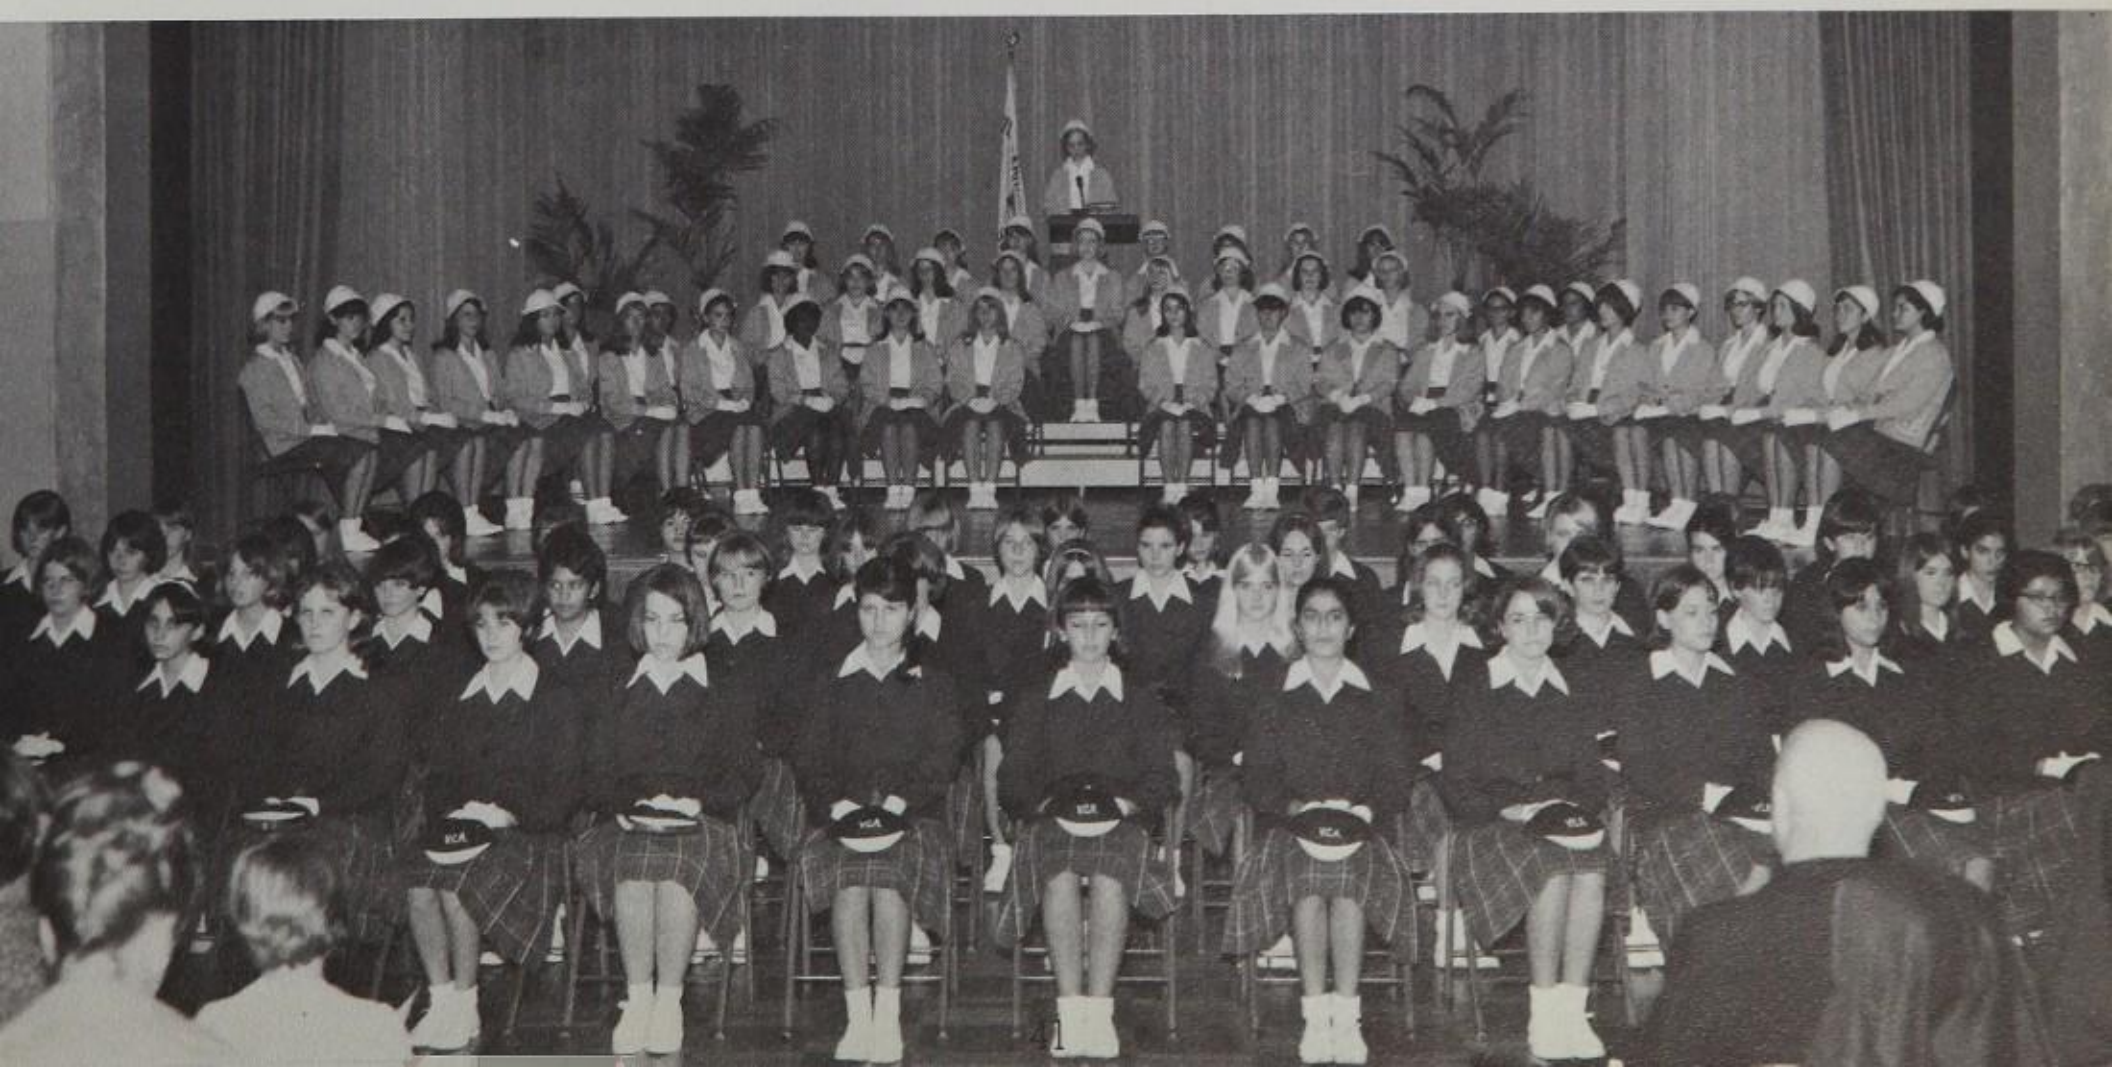

CAPPING CEREMONY

Father Fitzpatrick and Senior, Jane Lingua, congratulate and advise the Freshmen, while Donna Parkinson pledges their loyalty.

For Freshmen it symbolizes the end of the beginning. For Seniors — the beginning of an end.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Masqueraders look harsh in "The Home of the Soft-hearted Ghost."

Spirit Is a Scream

All is lost to the world except the sound of music at the VCA-PN Mixer.

Happy Times

"I really shouldn't be eating all this, but . . ."

Feastday Celebrations

Students render standing ovation to Superior, Mother Maddalena, on her feast day.

Principal, Sister Mercedes, graciously accepts a well-deserved bouquet of roses on her memorable feast day.

With a Smile

ART EXHIBITS

With satisfaction Cabrini students look upon their own ceramics and prize-winning masterpieces.

DRAMA FESTIVAL

DRAMA

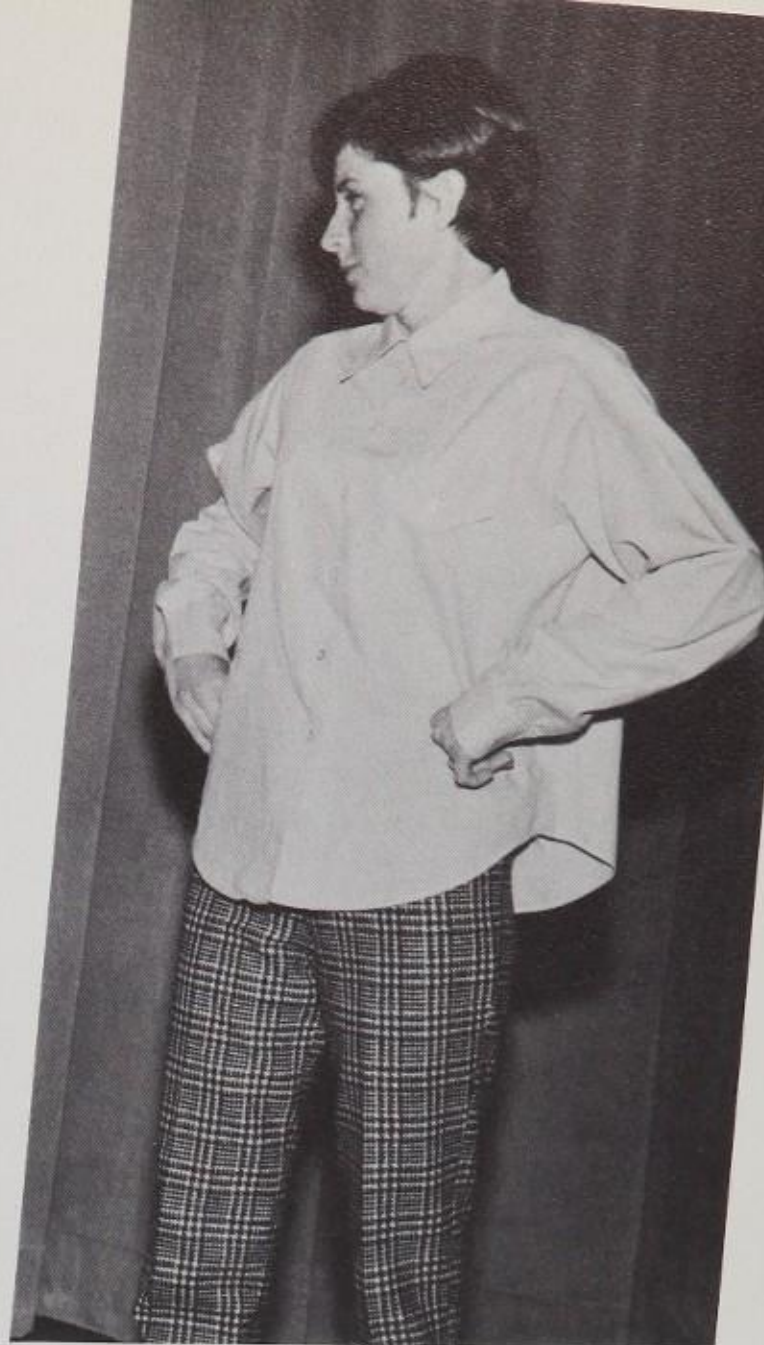

These inspiring actresses proudly display an award, received from the National Catholic Theatre Conference, for their presentation of "To Burn a Witch," in the 1967 One-Act Play Festival.

No, this isn't a slumber party! It's just a few members of the drama club rehearsing for their production of "Pajama Party".

"Acting is a serious business," says Shawn as Carol and Kae look on in agreement.

Everyone Gets in the Act

CABRINI'S SIXTH ANNUAL VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

A moment of anticipation for the Rockets as they anxiously await the official check of the final score.

Beaming rockets are presented with the coveted Sportsmanship Trophy.

Exhausted but ecstatic cheerleaders readily accept First Place Trophy from Mr. Bautista.

With Eyes on the Stars

'Tis The Season

Thanks to the Sophs, whose Christmas Party made the season the merriest ever!

Lovely queen, Rita Massier, and her court, princesses Pat Gucciardi and Linda Grant, graciously reigned over this year's "Sno-Ball."

"And Merry Christmas to you, Sister Mercedes," says Santa Claus who took time out of his busy schedule to add to the fun.

The accent is on glamour as charming models display the latest in fall fashion.

STUDENT FASHION SHOW

Mrs. Clyde Orr announces the winning numbers for the more than 100 door prizes distributed at the luncheon.

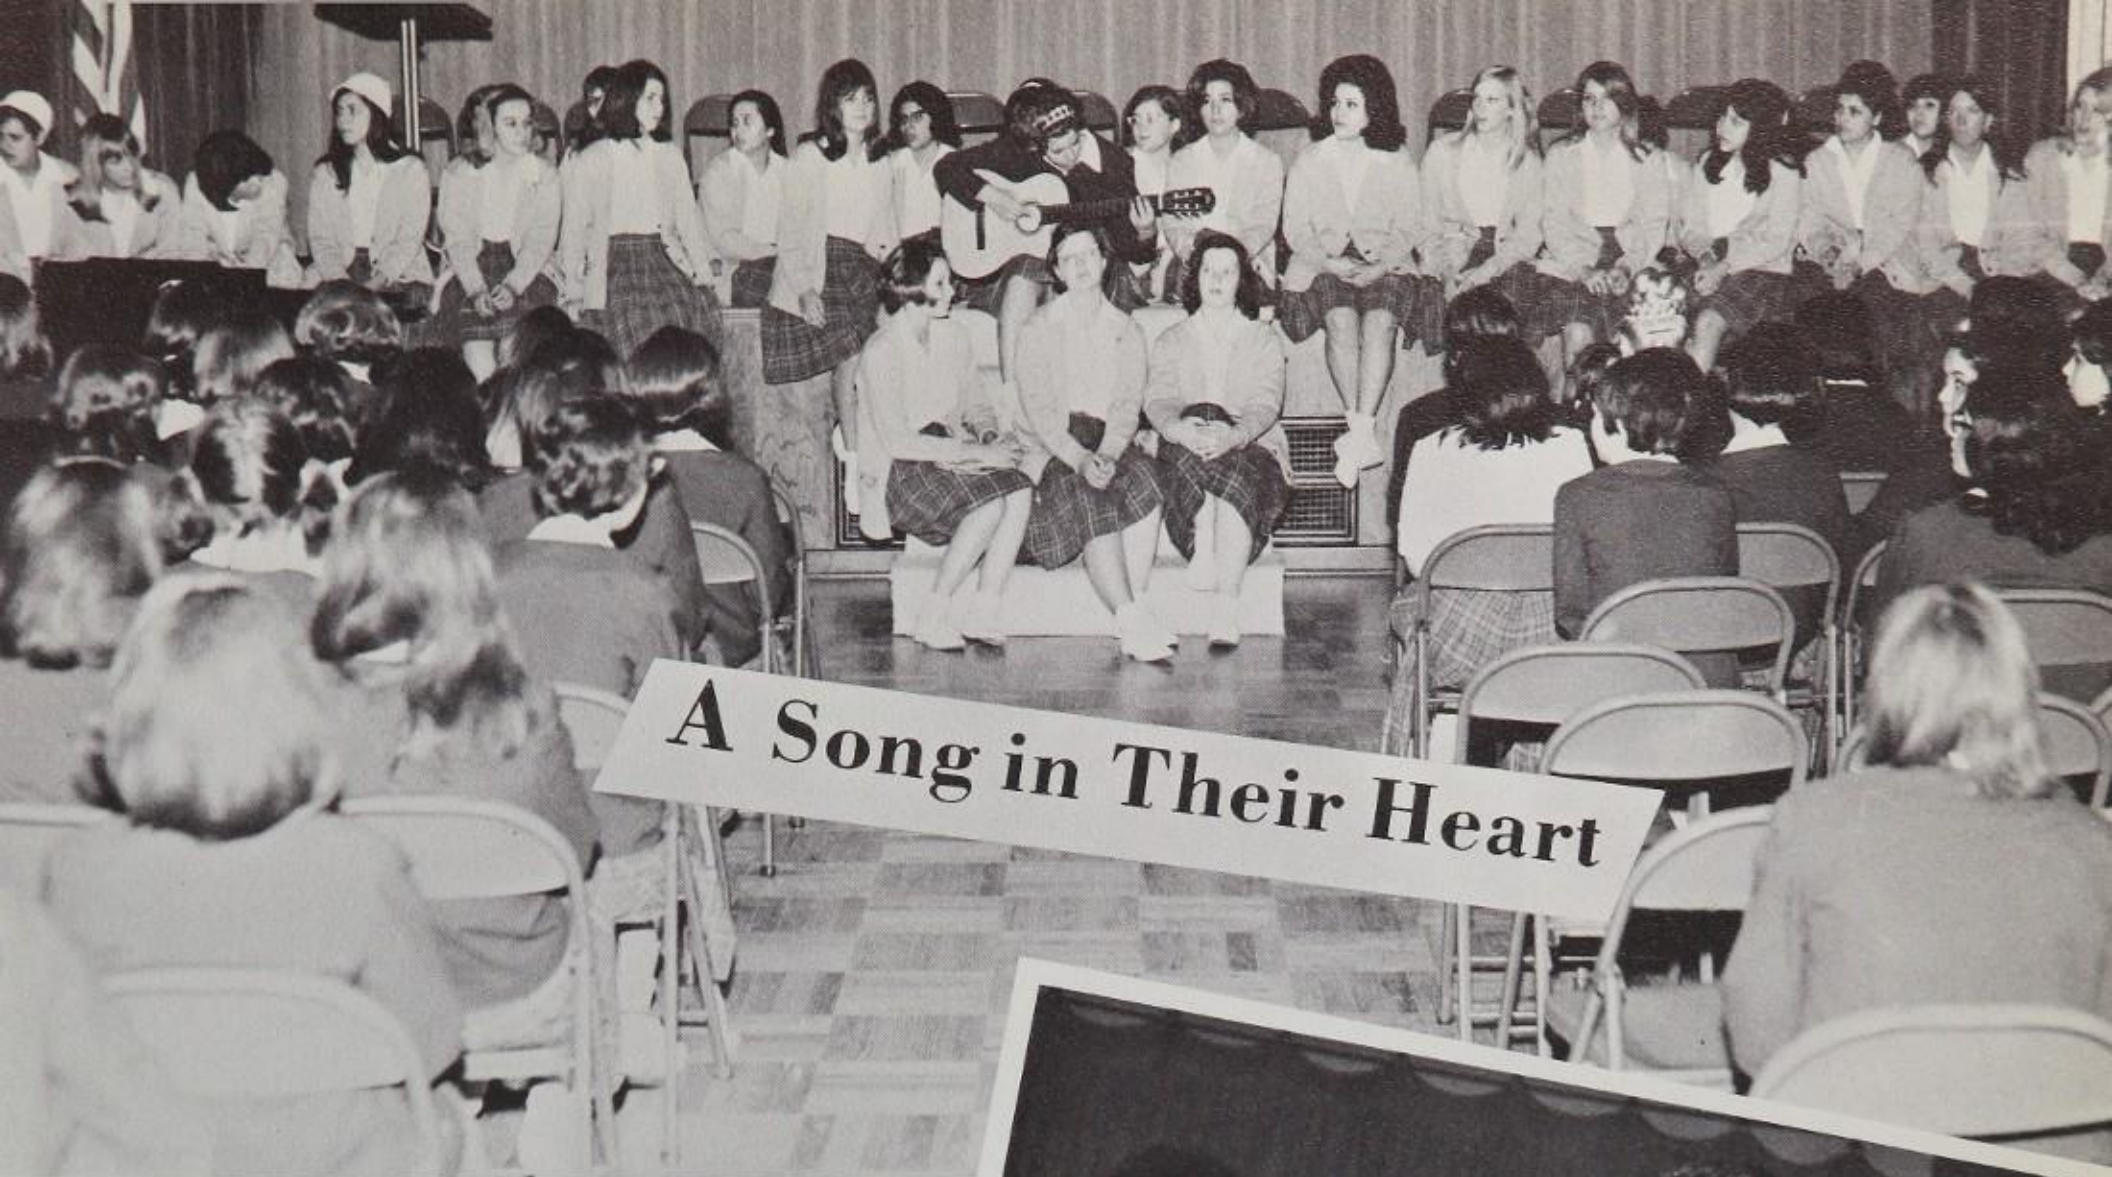

Special Moments

Villa students are honored for their many hours of voluntary service, as Linda and Nancy proudly receive the lovely plaque from City of Hope man-power chairman, Mr. Clyde Orr.

Service Awards

"Peace is attainable" won for Beverly Hammond First Place Area Trophy in the Lion's Club District Oratorical Contest.

A Song in Their Heart

Pensive songsters find moments of relaxation and togetherness at our hootenanny.

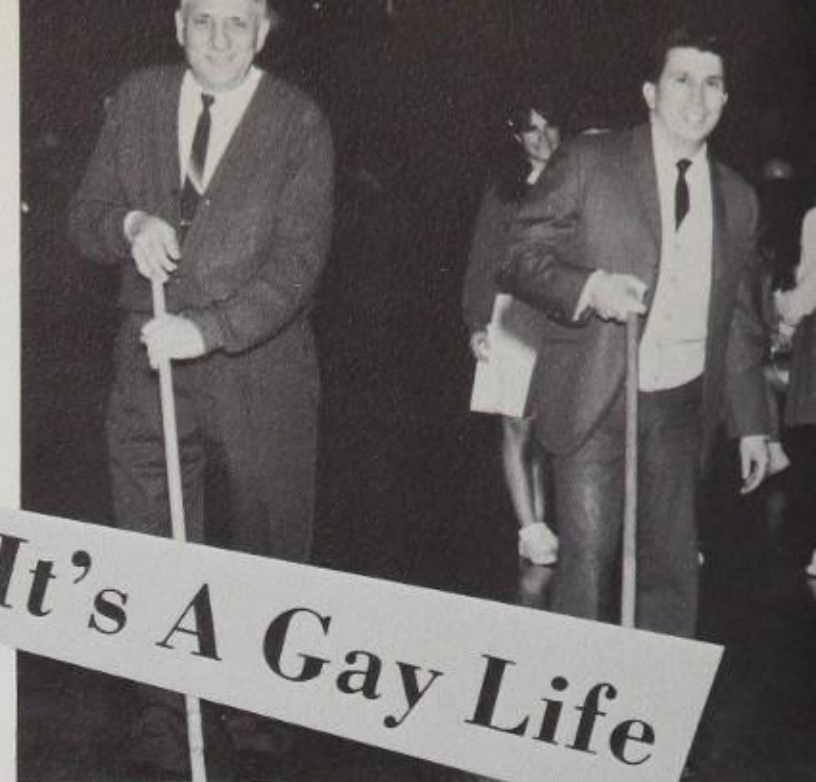

Valentine's Dance M.C., Rita Massier awards "Cupids Couple" with a memento and big congratulations.

All show happy surprise as Carole Dapello announces Linda Grant—queen of "Hearts and Flowers", along with her court—princesses Ida Cochrane and Shawn Treen.

Good
Times

Night

No, it's not the Mafia, just the French cast in "Passage Cloute".

Language Festival

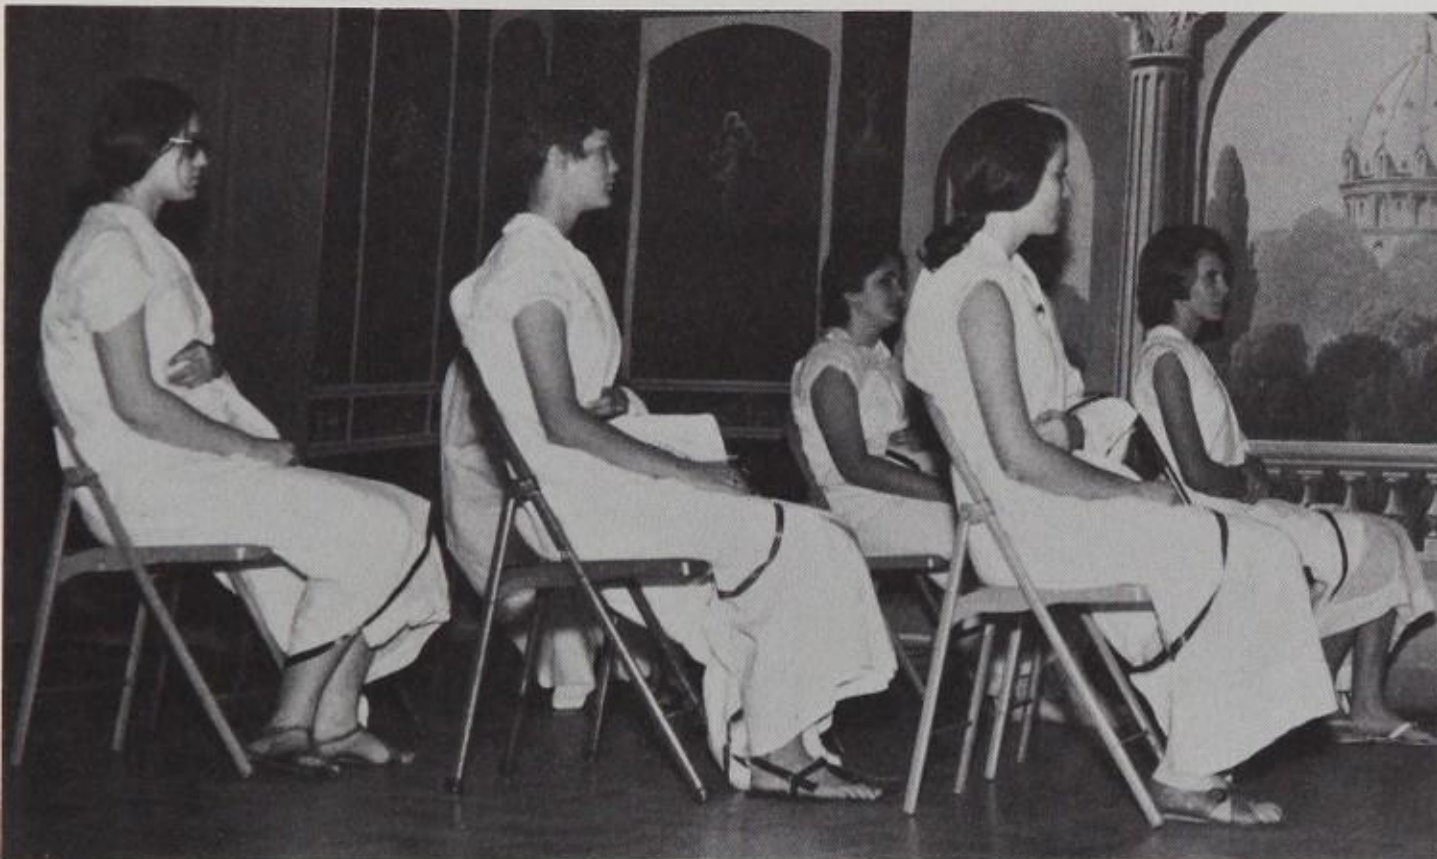

"Blondes don't always have more fun!" says Fraulein Karen Lamer, surrounded by her many admirers.

Pretty "Signorine" dance the Tarantella during "Italian Holiday".

Cicero states his case once more as five skeptical Roman senators listen intently.

"Que maravillosa!" says Sana, as the Spanish cast ponders the question.

Round-The-World Clubs

Welcome Reverend Mother!

Reverend Mother General, assistant Mother General, Mother Josephine, and Father Molinari intently watch the program given in their honor.

"A Day in Science" was sponsored by the National Foundation — March of Dimes, and along with many other aspiring journalists, Sister Mercedes, Sylvia Perez, and Maria Teresa Zambrano visit the laboratory of Dr. Jonas Salk.

Election Time Again!

Spirit and imagination were the keynotes of the 1967 election campaigns.

Shawn Treen, this year's delegate to Girls' State, is congratulated by "old-timer", Rita Massier.

CAREER DAY

Delegates from various occupations help students make their vocational decisions.

Their experience and advice made the day profitable for all.

PROM NITE

"Portrait of a Dream" provides both seniors and juniors with an evening of dining, dancing, and unforgettable memories. Reigning over the evening was queen, Michele Beauchamp, and her court of princesses, Terry Hays, Susan Kelleher, and Carole Dapello.

The Fairest of the Fair

"O Mary We Crown Thee"

Sodality President, Diane Reiser, was chosen as May Queen to crown the Blessed Mother in the annual ceremonies.

Radiant queen, Diane Reiser, and her court, Nancy Mailliard, Michol Butterfield, Ida Cochrane, and Terry Hays.

work of her creative
Juniors.

A sentimental program made the evening
complete.

Faculty members enjoy the international theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

"Yes, it's a small world
after all."

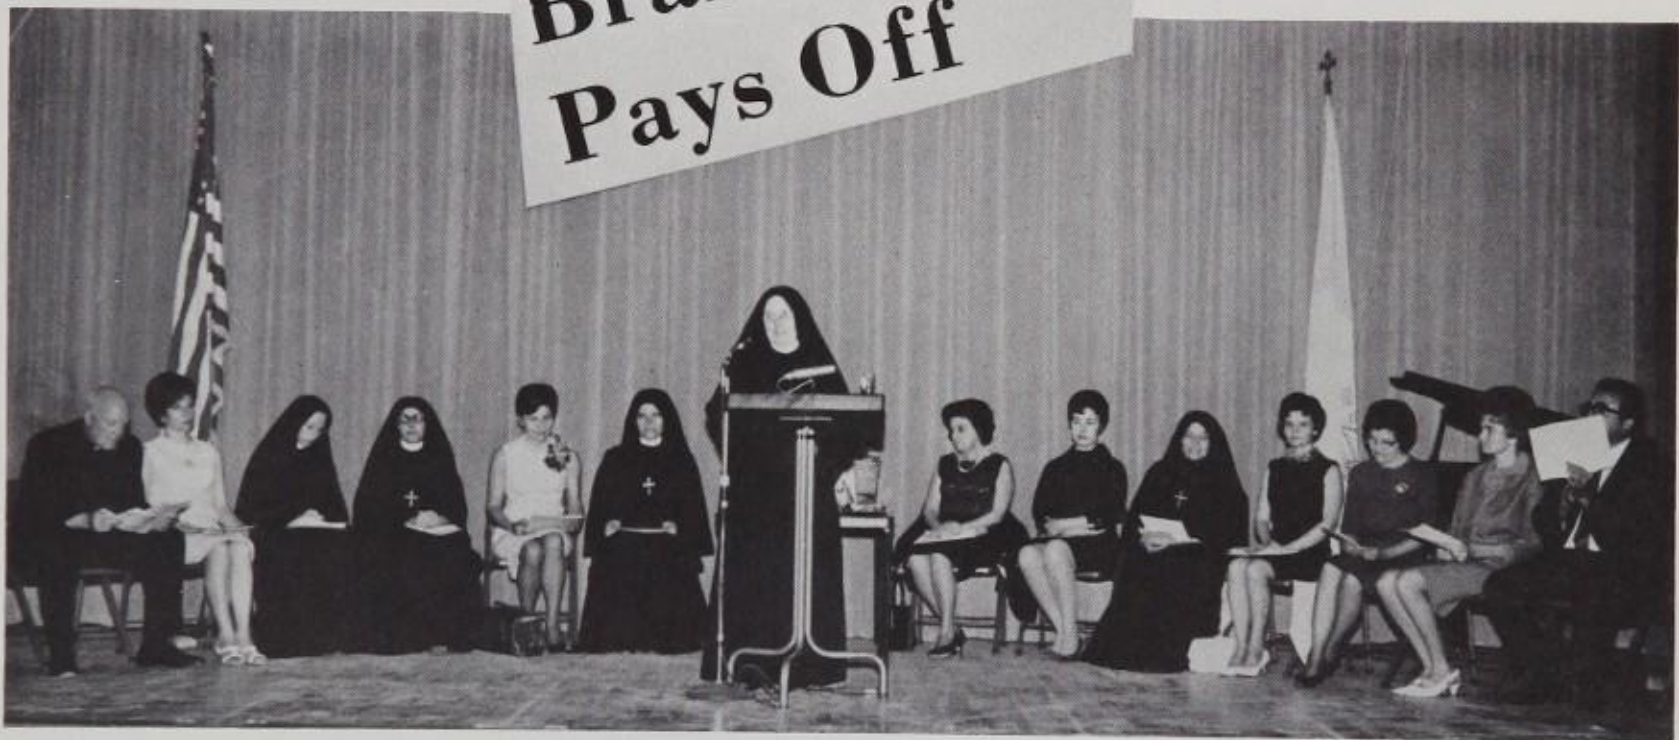

Learning is in itself a reward, bringing with it wisdom and knowledge. However, students at Cabrini are further recognized for their achievements at the annual awards night. Faculty members bestow honors upon students in all fields. They are acknowledged for their spiritual, academic, and athletic accomplishments and thus encouraged to "PROGRESS THROUGH LEARNING".

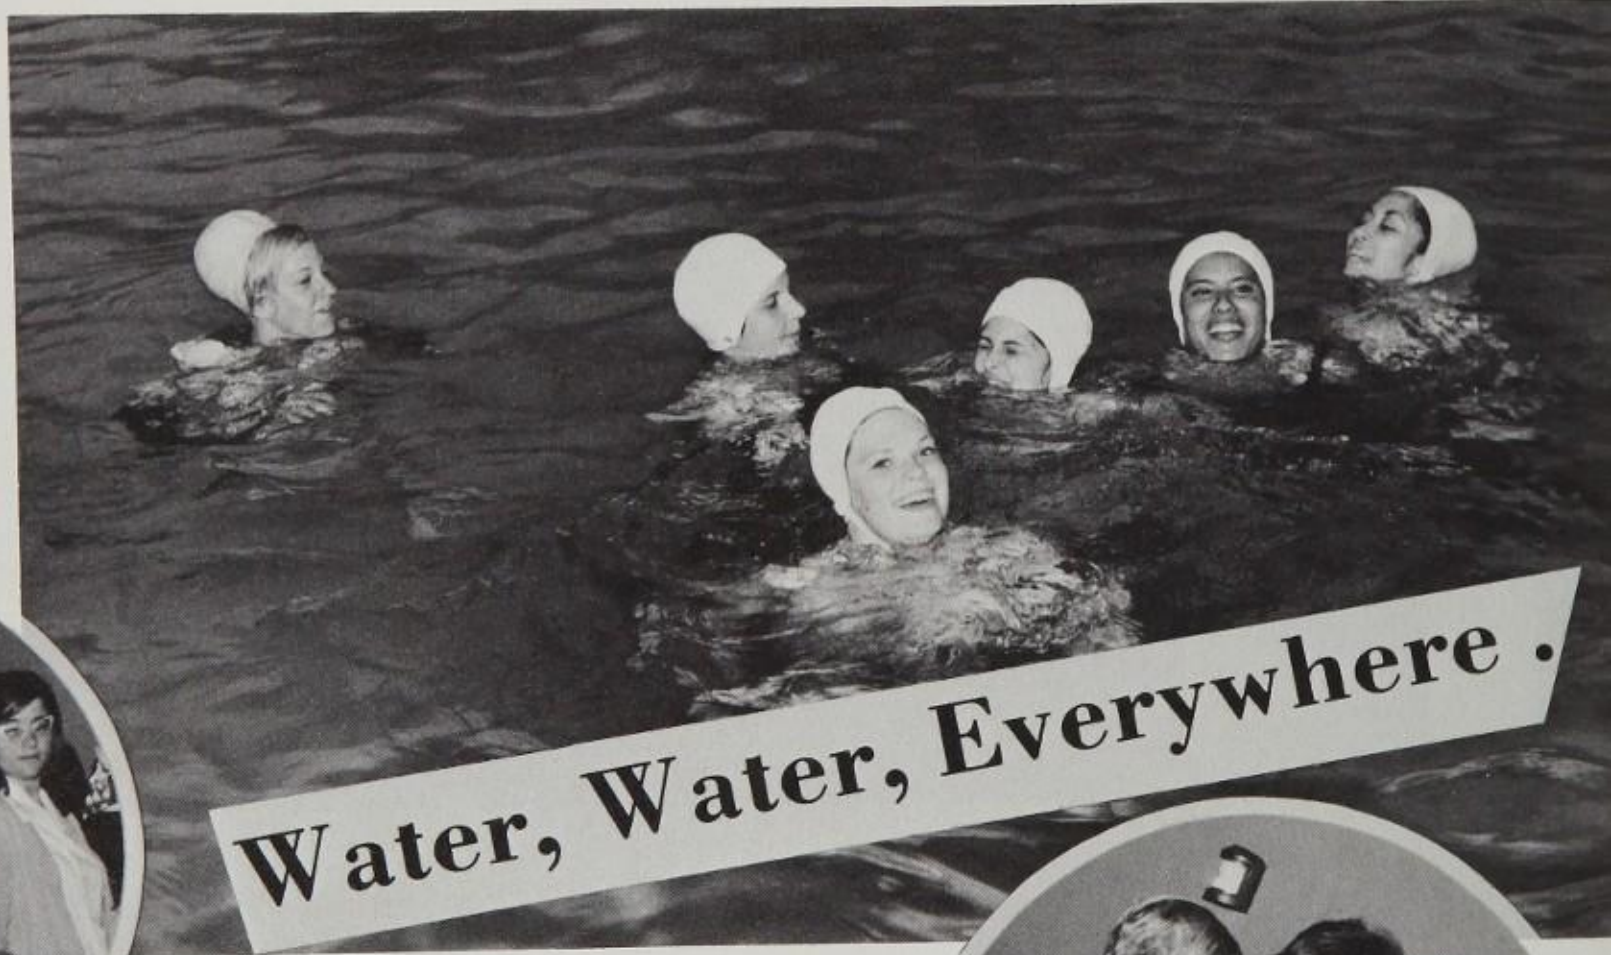

Brain Power Pays Off

VCA TALENT SHOW

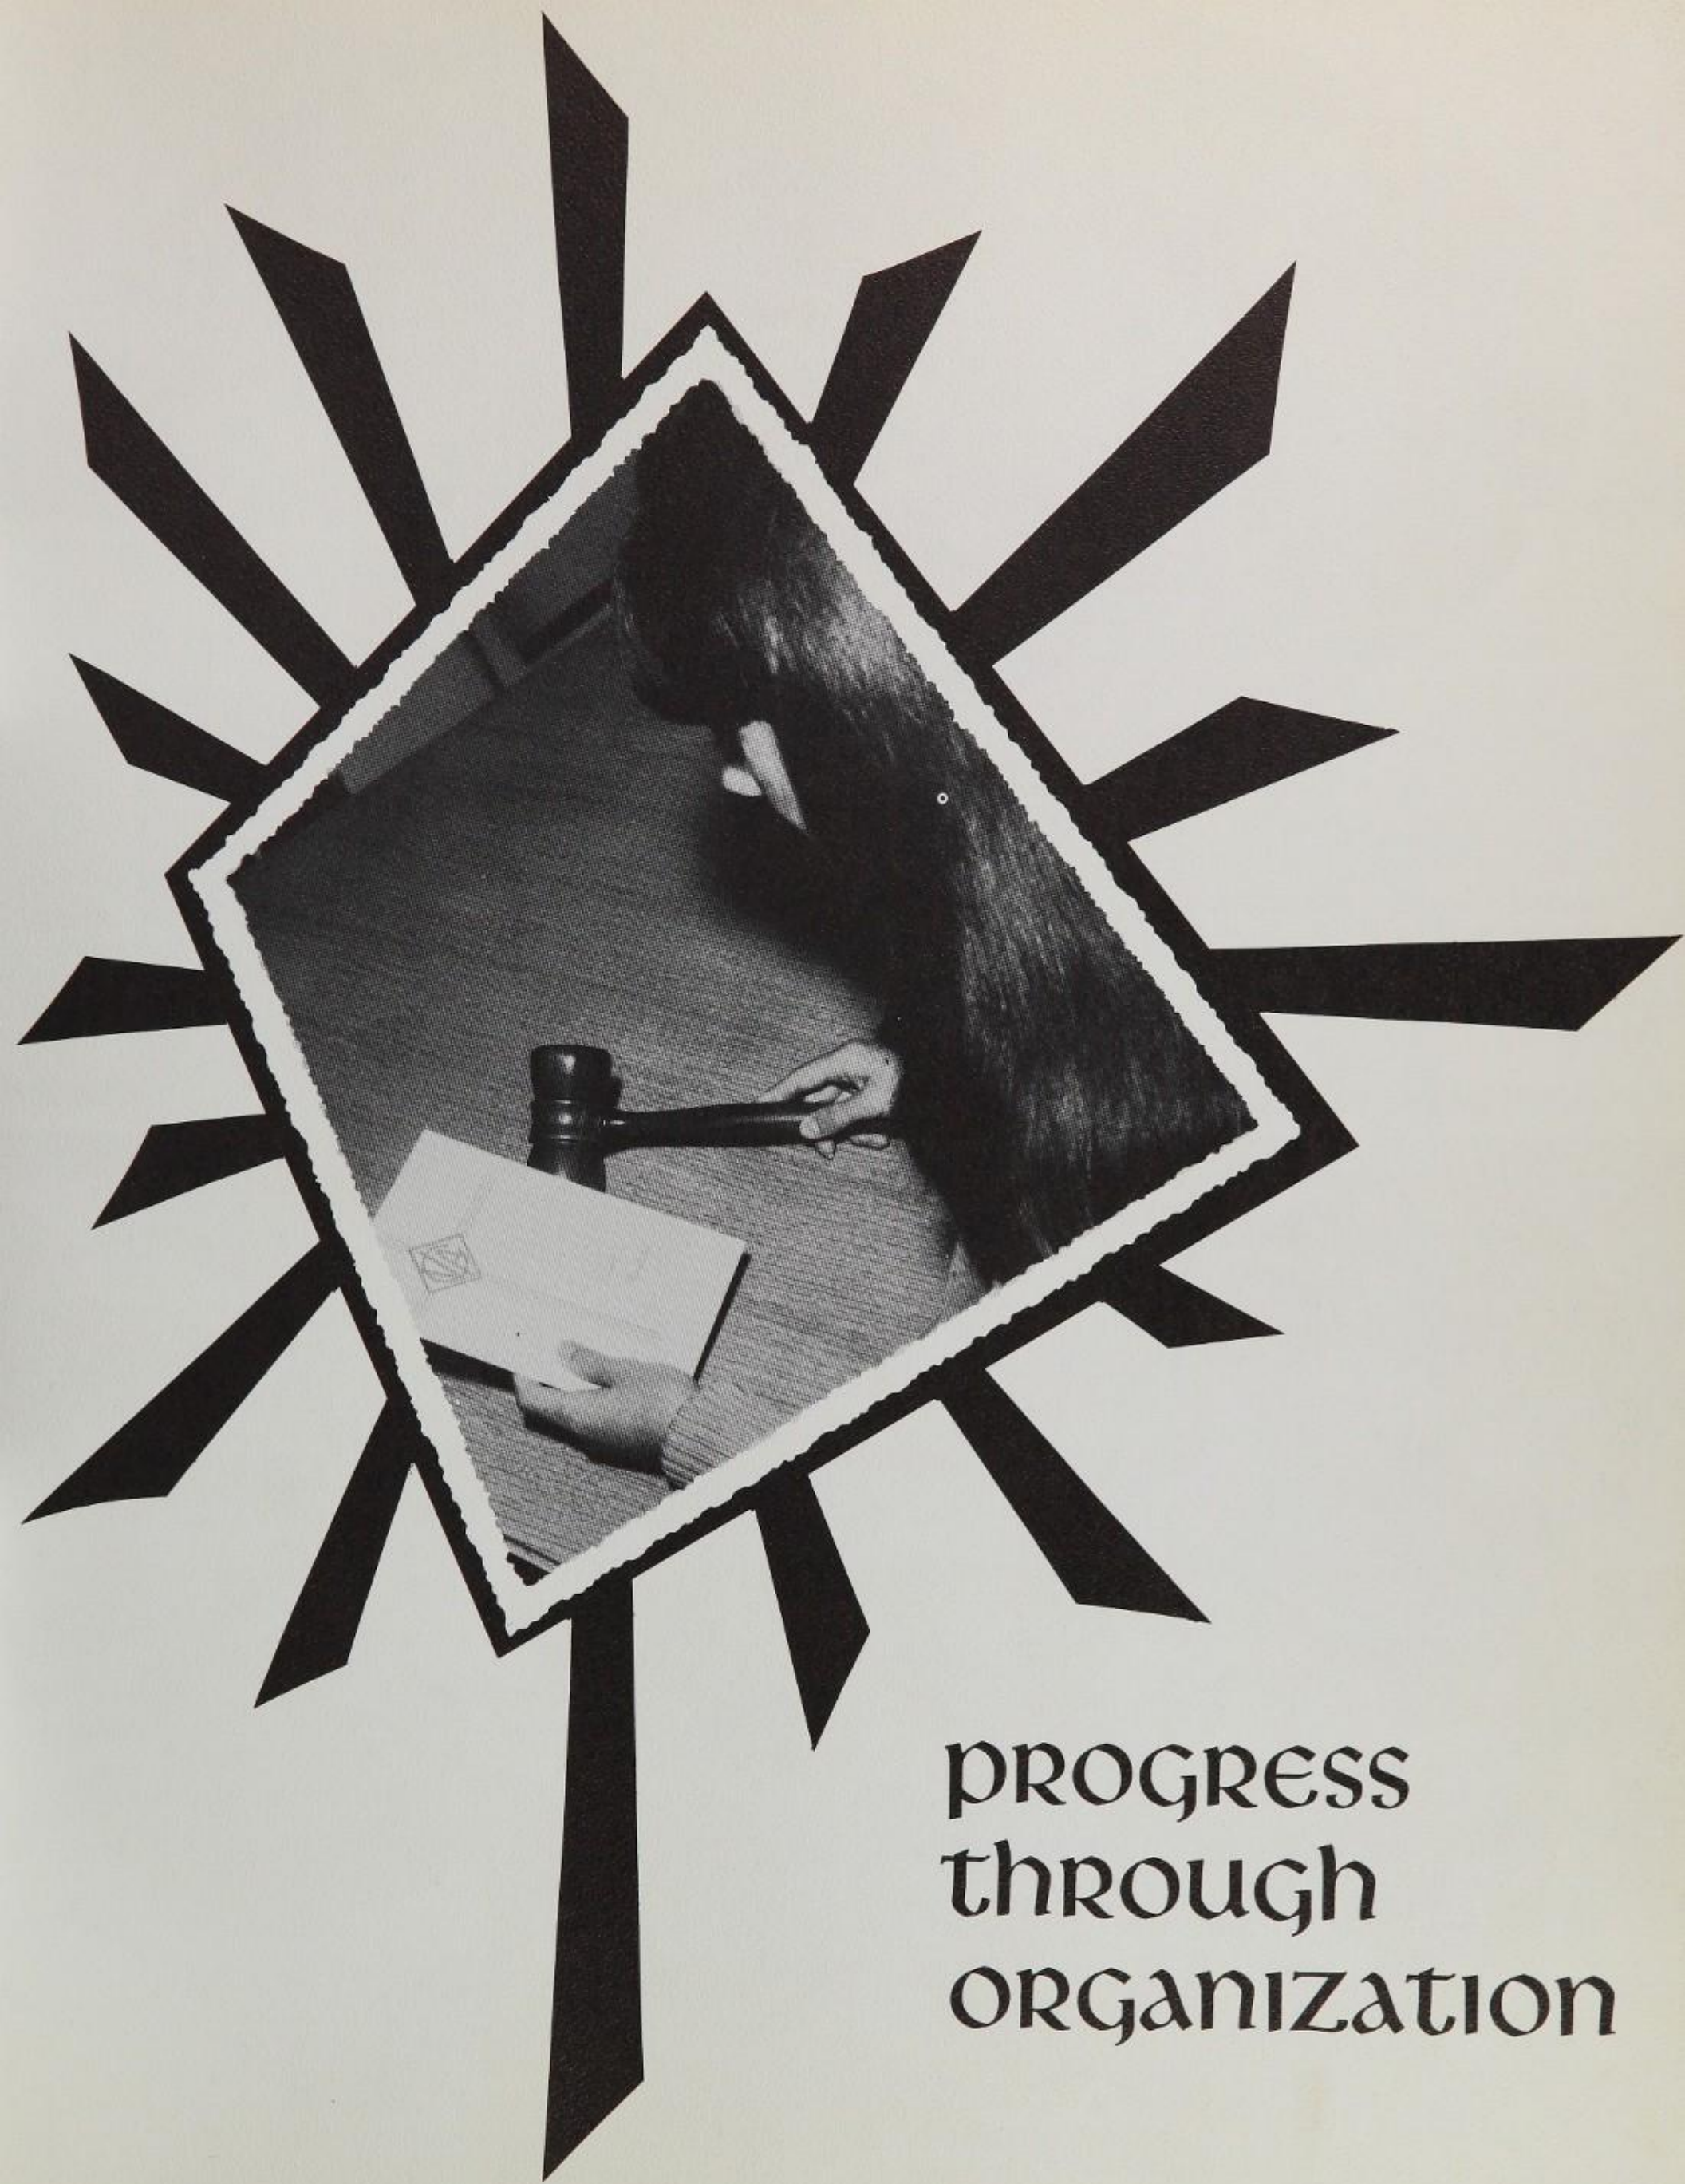

Participants in first annual talent show stand in "The Spotlight". Director, Beverly Hammond, and assistant director, Jane Lingua, receive applause for their efforts.

Water, Water, Everywhere.

Faculty and students join in the fun at the Junior-Senior Barbecue.

ORGANIZATION

Student Council encompasses all aspects of school life — its members being leaders of various organizations.

Student Council

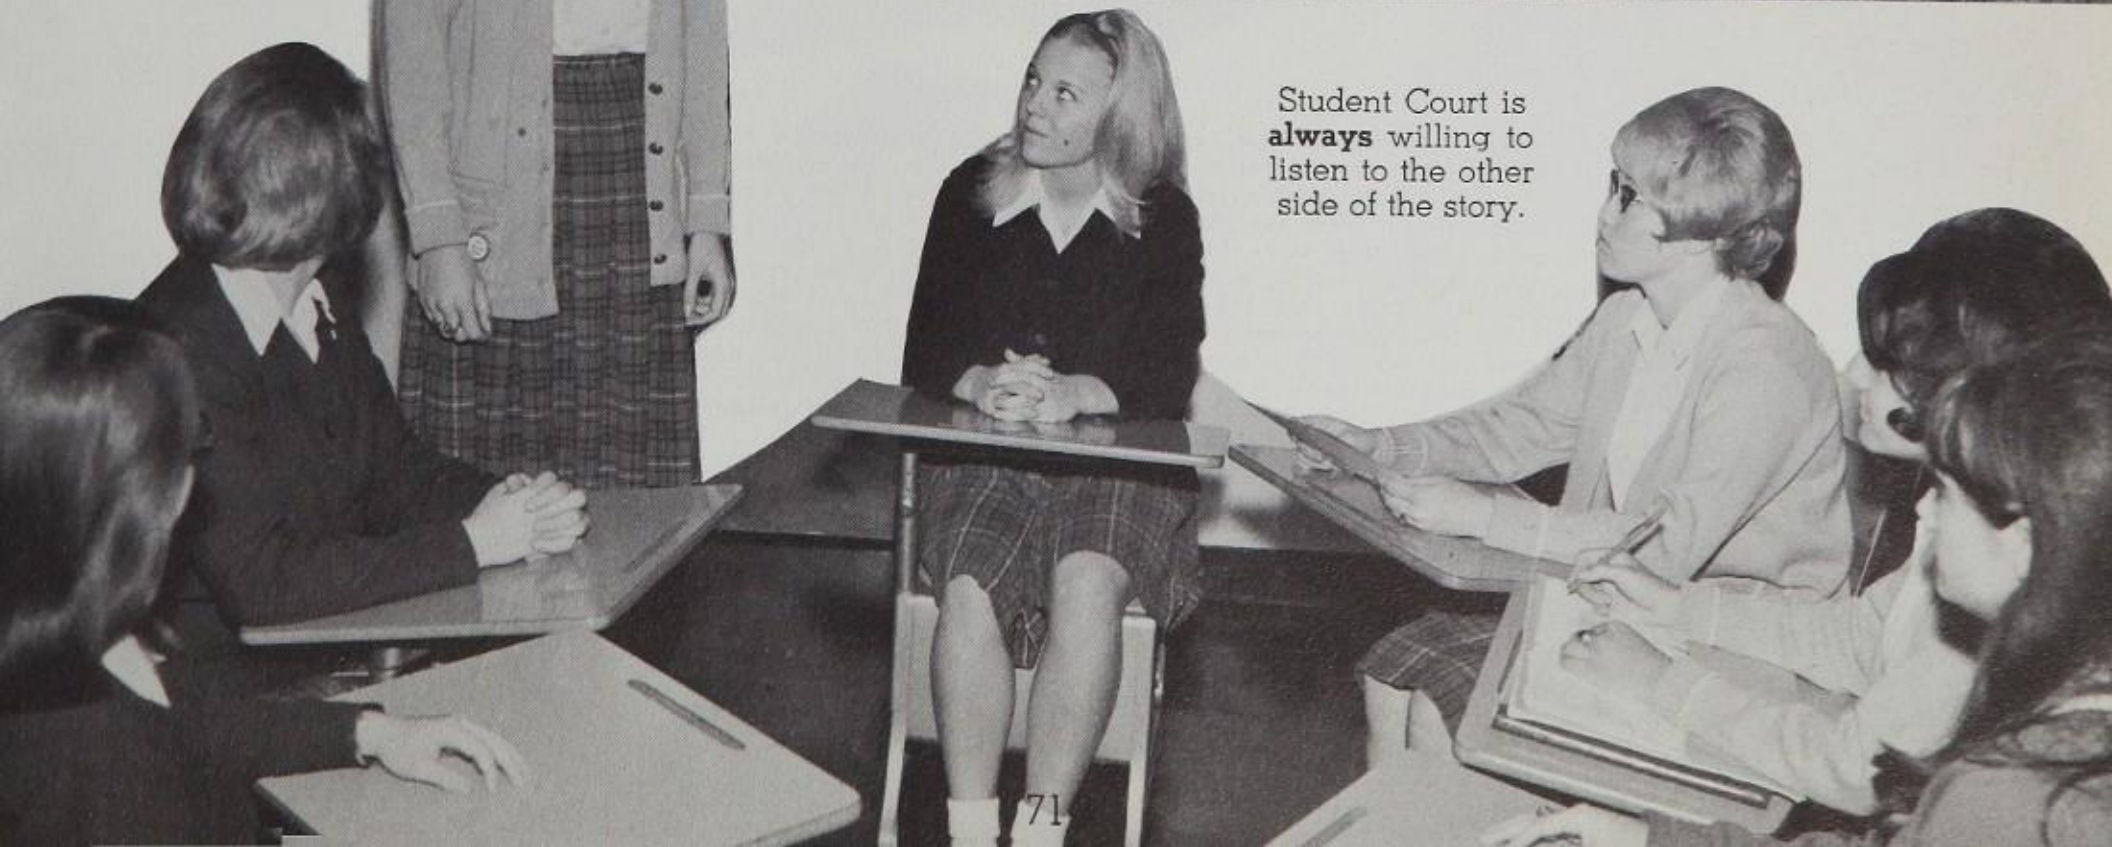

Student Council—tireless effort, work unending, limitless dedication, and boundless creativity.

Outgoing officers congratulate happy newcomers with a feeling of finality.

All classes vie for the Spirit Trophy, and Coordinator of Activities, Sue Scarcelli happily presents senior Michelle with the coveted award!

Student Court is always willing to listen to the other side of the story.

Senior Sodalists
enjoy a visit with Assistant General, Reverend Mother Josephine.

The Sodality of Our Lady

Only a Sodalist can tell you what the Sodality is really like because she is the one who makes it so. Reaching Christ through Mary and serving Him by reaching out to mankind are her individual goals, and each member feels she can do this best by participating in a group with others who share her feelings. The Sodality provides such an atmosphere. Being the center of religious activity at Cabrini, it provides opportunities for each girl to give service, both to herself and others. Visits to a convalescent home, an annual Thanksgiving Canned Goods Drive, representation at Mary's Hour, a Twilight Retreat, the May Crowning, and monthly Mass as a group give each girl ample opportunity to widen her spiritual horizons. In this way she truly makes Progress — Progress on the road that reaches Christ through Mary.

THE CECILIANS

One of the many activities open to Cabrini students, providing them with pleasant relaxation while increasing their knowledge and appreciation of music, is the Cecilian Choir. Here girls share a love for the divine hymn as well as for the fun of a hot Calypso beat.

Our thanks go to the directress, Mrs. Cromie, who has worked to make our choir the best in terms of musical quality, to our efficient pianist, Mrs. Verna Burke, and to our patient moderator, Sister Stanislaus.

THE JUNIOR CHORALE

Mrs. Burke enjoys happy moments with the Junior Chorale.

MADRIGALS

CHEERLEADERS' FAREWELL

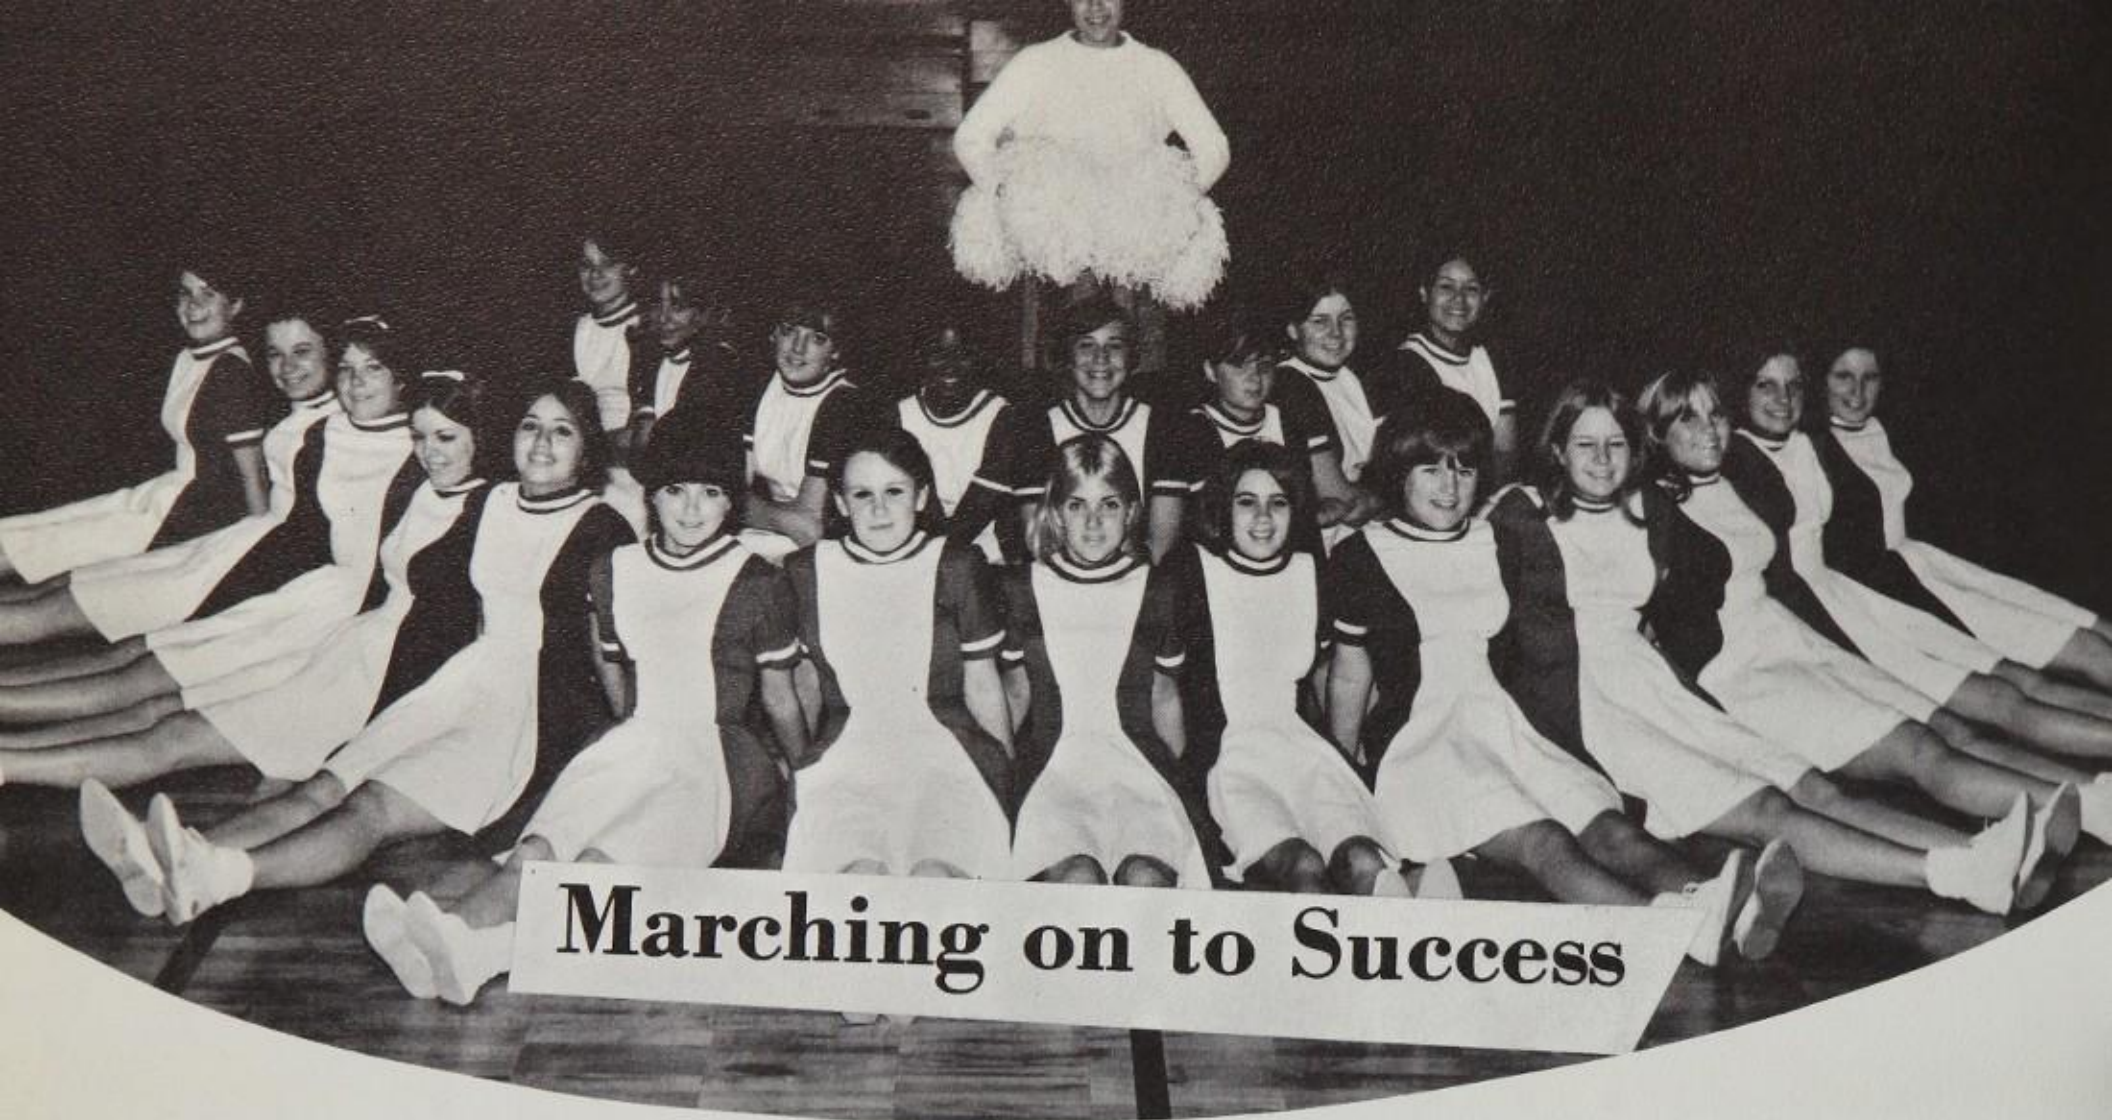

Cheerleading days have ended and so,
The time has come for us to go.
We think back on all the fun we had —
Victories so gay, and defeats so sad.
The fun and excitement, the noisy crowds,
The team running in and shouting aloud,
Tensions high when scores got close
When spectators stood and cheered the most.
We cheered the team forever on,
But now those days of spirit are gone.
And as we say good-bye, you see —
Cheerleaders again, we'd like to be!

GRADUATION

*Graduation is an end,
But also a beginning . . .
The start of all the dreams
That every graduate is spinning.
Graduation is sighs and laughter
Mingled liberally with tears,
Lingering memories of one's sharing
Life with classmates through the years.
Graduation is conclusion
Of one big phase of work and fun,
A milestone passed, new things begun.
Graduation is excitement,
Speeches, farewells
And applause, diplomas
And a mortar board . . .
The gate to pathways unexplored. DAVIS*

Look to this day!
 For it is life, the very life of life.
 In its brief course lie all the varieties
 And realities of your existence:

The bliss of growth;
 The glory of action;
 The splendor of beauty;

For yesterday is already a dream and
 Tomorrow is only a vision;
 But today, well lived, makes every yesterday
 A dream of happiness,

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
 Look well, therefore, to this day!
 Such is the salutation of the dawn.

My Creed

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;

I would be pure, for there are those who care;

I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;

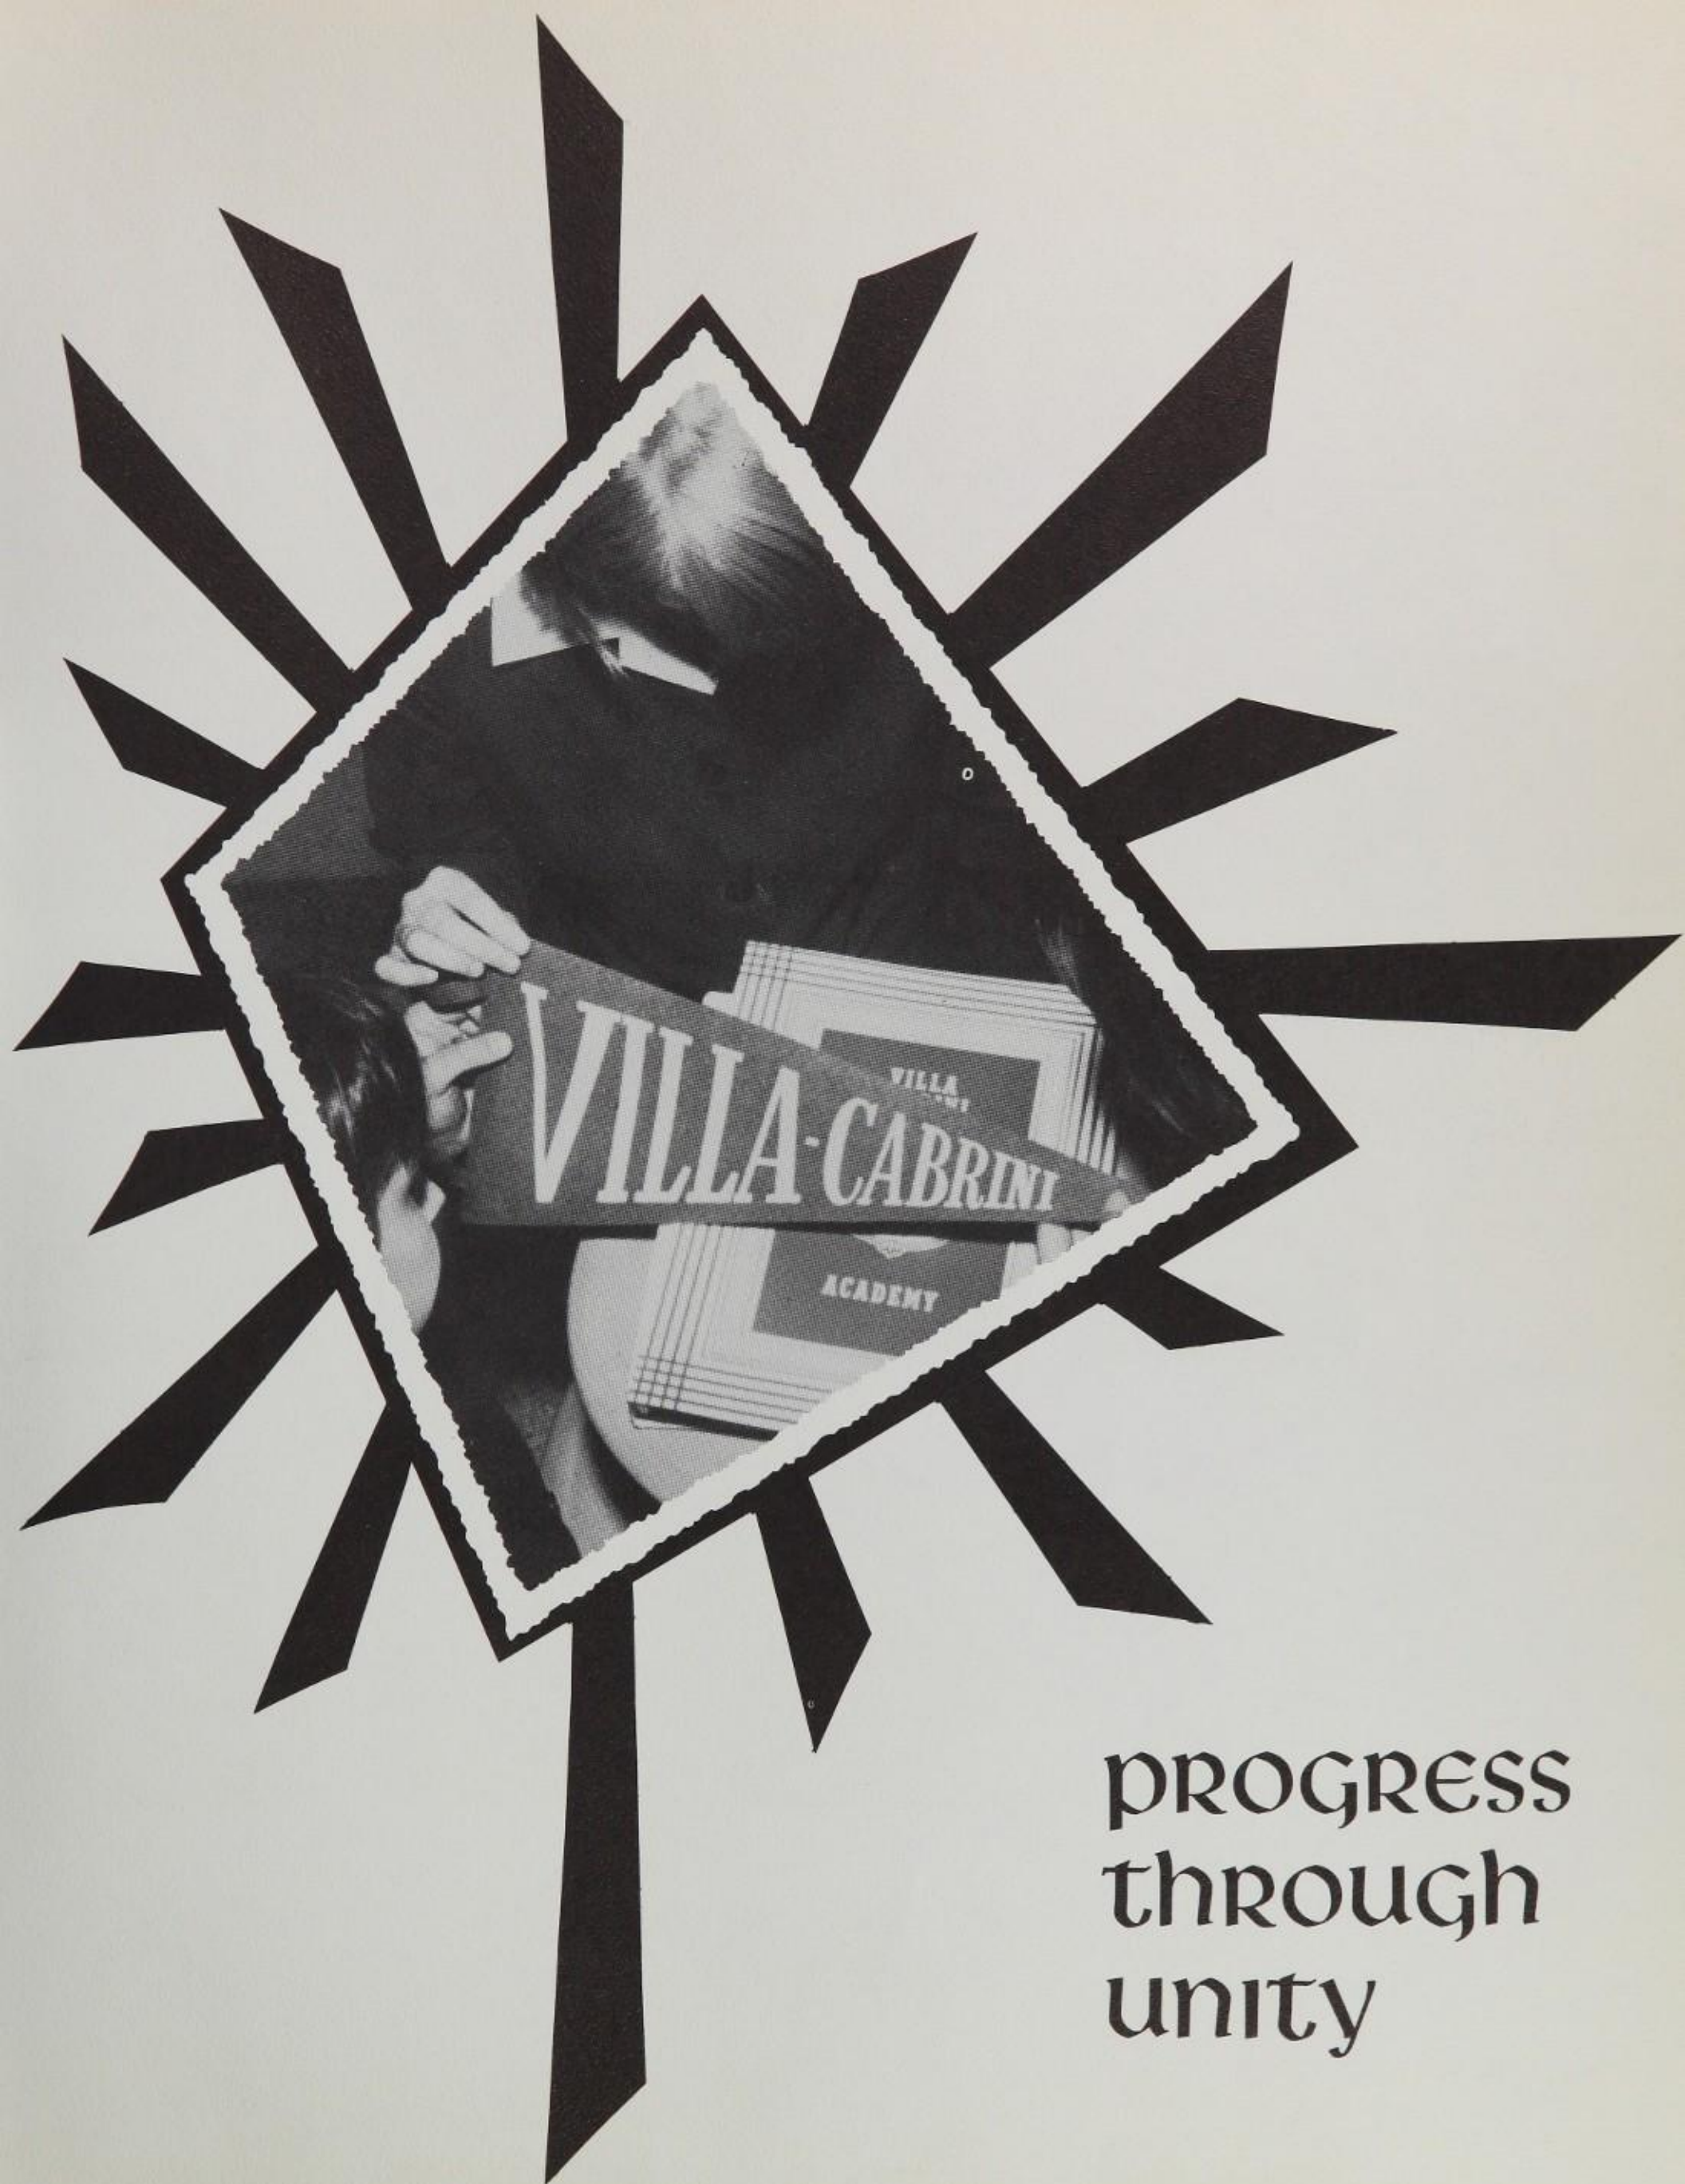

I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be a friend of all — the foe, the friendliness;

I would be giving and forget the gift;

I would be humble, for I know my weakness;

I would look up — and laugh — and love — and lift.

TEAM WORK

It's all very well to have courage and skill
 And it's fine to be counted a star,
 But the single deed with its touch of thrill
 Doesn't tell us the man you are;
 For there's no lone hand in the game we play,
 We must work to a bigger scheme,
 And the thing that counts in the world today
 Is, How do you pull with the team?

They may sound your praise and call you great,
 They may single you out for fame,
 But you must work with your running mate
 Or you'll never win the game;
 For never the work of life is done
 By the man with a selfish dream,
 For the battle is lost or the battle is won
 By the spirit of the team.

You may think it fine to be praised for skill
 But a greater thing to do
 Is to set your mind and set your will
 On the goal that's just in view;
 It's helping your fellowman to score
 When his chances hopeless seem;
 It's forgetting self till the game is o'er
 And fighting for the team.

Farewell Alma Mater

A time of sadness has come upon those of us who must depart, for we must leave our dear Alma Mater and advance forward into a continually changing world of great challenge and great joy. However, we need not leave everything behind, for we can take all that we have known with us as a dear memory. Now we leave with the achievements and experiences gained through the knowledge imparted to us, knowledge which has given us the courage to seek our place in this vast realm of existence.

And so we extend our sincere thanks to Villa Cabrini Academy, not only for the educational opportunities it has afforded us, but also for its guiding light which has helped us to see more clearly the path upon which we now embark. As we bid farewell, our voices resound once more:

Villa Cabrini, Alma Mater true,
We pledge undying fealty to you!
